

The background of the slide is a photograph of a library aisle. The aisle is carpeted in a light beige color and is flanked by tall, dark-colored bookshelves. The shelves are filled with books of various colors, creating a vibrant pattern. The perspective is from the end of the aisle, looking down its length towards a bright light source at the far end, which creates a strong sense of depth and perspective. The lighting is warm and even, highlighting the texture of the carpet and the spines of the books.

Internships, High-Impact Practices, and Provocative Praxis in Higher Education
Beth Manke, Bonnie Gasior, Michelle Chang, 2023-12-06. This authored text critically examines the theory and practice of college internship programs grounded in equity, diversity, inclusion, and access (EDIA) to examine issues such as infrastructure, inclusion, and privilege through provocative praxis, a form of provocative inquiry that drives the ethics of pedagogy to envision student success both equitably and sustainably. Chapters use real-life scenario-based examples through a social justice framework to engage readers and spark multi-directional discussion aimed at removing obstacles to equitable participation in internships for all students. Ultimately, this book offers a holistic understanding of internships that factors in the social, economic, and cultural challenges faced by college students today and calls for wholesale reform to college campus internship programs.
