3 candidates running to fill one two-year position on Ramsay County Commission

By Louise Olson

During the June Primary four candidates were identified as seeking the two four-year terms for Ramsay County Commissioners. Ed Gossner (Shawano), Bill Blodau, Mark Olson and Paul Wilhelms. Two of those four individuals will be elected November 8, 2022. Their profiles can be found on the front page of the Devils Lake Journal, Nov. 1, 2022.

Also, unexpectedly one two-year term vacancy was created when Lucas Winklerfeld resigned his position on the commission and moved away.

Therefore, on November 8, voters will also decide among three candidates who want to be elected to fill the remainder of this position. They are Terry Wallace, Lee Gossner and Rob Johnson.

Terry Wallace It was Terry Wallace's last official day as the Superintendent of Devils Lake Parks and Recreation on Friday, October 21 although he intends to remain involved to help the new Superintendent, Josh Johnson, begin his tenure until the end of 2022 or thereabout. Johnson's first day was Wednesday, Oct. 19. "I enjoyed my job," Wallace admitted. After 31 years serving in a position he deeply loved, no doubt Wallace will be missed for the Park Board and his expertise for a long time to come.

Besides, he said that he wants to be a part of seeing the planned facility center built in the Leveaux location.

Wallace is a life-long resident of Devils Lake and the area. He grew up on a farm, his family farmed land in both the Leveaux and Gossner areas, and worked for 24 years for the USDA. He has those experiences and knowing how government works, how to balance a budget, will help him if he is elected to the Ramsay County Commission. "I will have the time, now, I know a lot of people throughout Ramsay County and I want to stay active in the community," Wallace said.

Lee Gossner Lee Gossner is seeking to fill the two-year term on the Ramsay County Commission remaining in Rob Lucas. Winklerfeld moved away.

Gossner grew up in Devils Lake, graduating from Devils Lake High School and attending the NEDSSS Waiparua. For his Junior Year of Arts in welding and machine maintenance, then getting his BS degree in Animal Science through NEDSSS. He has been married to Bonnie for 30 years. She works locally for Hospice of the Red River. They have two grown sons and one grandson.

Gossner farmed until 2014 when he started his own business located in

Devils Lake Area Chamber holds annual meeting, awards

By Makenna Huber
 Special to DLJ

The Devils Lake Chamber of Commerce celebrated its 90th Annual Celebration of Business and Community Event last week, recognizing the Chamber's efforts in the last year and Chamber members who have made a difference in the community.

About 100 people gathered for the meeting, where Paula Wiklund, executive director of the Chamber, ran through the last year's events, including the over 15 ribbon cuttings at area businesses, and events he came in the last year.

There were 200 members in the Chamber, a select few were recognized with awards at the annual meeting.

"There are no many great businesses in Devils

Lake that it was hard to choose just one in each of the categories," Wiklund said. "Chamber members nominated these people, and I believe that when you vote for their peers it strongly represents great leadership in our community."

The Women-owned Business Achievement Award, recognized a women-owned member business that has attained outstanding business achievement and accomplishments in the chamber and community, was awarded to Makenna T. Huber at Consuecos Coffee and Espresso.

The Excellence in Small Business Award, recognizing a member business with 10 or less employees that displays overall outstanding Mayor Moe, Devils Lake City Manager, poses in Jim Moe as the city's Mayor earlier this year.

Mayor Jim Moe reflects on his first 100 days in office

By Louise Olson

Just a few days shy of marking his first 100 days in office, which would be November 5, Jim Moe says he is optimistic about what is ahead for the city of Devils Lake.

Earlier this year, on July 28, Moe was sworn in as the city's Mayor. Following retirement from his twenty-two decades as the city's Fire Chief, Moe had not his sights on the position he knew Dick Johnson had decided to vacate. Moe won that election, one of the few that is decided in the city's June primary.

Of the many challenges ahead for the city, Moe is excited about a number of improvements residents will see coming about in the days, months and years ahead.

"If we can continue to work together for the benefit of the community, we will see some exciting things happening here in Devils Lake," Moe said.

He's especially enthusiastic about the recent progress being made in the area of health care services emphasized by the agreement signed last last week among Avera Clinic, Essentia Health and the Spirit Lake Nation that would bring a new hospital and vital health care services to the Lake Region by 2027. He admits there is a great deal that needs to be done along the way but he is hopeful this is one step in the right direction for the community and all the communities throughout the Lake Region who will benefit Outgoing Mayor Dick Johnson presented the "key" to Devils Lake to newly elected Mayor Jim Moe.
