Huebert,2014-03-30 Most Christians struggle to keep up a daily quiet time Many of us are dependent on devotional books to shape our time with God because we have no idea how to do it on our own Or maybe we avoid daily devotions because it feels like we re not getting much out of them And then the guilt kicks in because we know we really ought to have a daily quiet time Am I right But imagine an approach to your quiet time that feels like wading into a living stream You can enjoy a proven rhythm created by God himself that welcomes you just as you are and helps you go with the flow instead of fighting the current Go With The Flow will show you how to approach your daily time with God simply naturally and joyfully You ll learn how to embrace a current that will help you thrive in your faith and live your whole life saturated by the good news of Jesus Christ Religious and Non-Religious Perspectives on Happiness and Wellbeing Sharada Sugirtharajah, 2022-04-25 This book explores the theme of happiness and well being from religious spiritual philosophical psychological humanistic and health perspectives Taking a non binary approach it considers how happiness in particular has been understood and appropriated in religious and non religious strands of thought The chapters offer incisive insight from a variety of perspectives including humanism atheism and major religions such as Christianity Islam Buddhism Hinduism and Judaism Together they demonstrate that although worldviews might vary substantially there are concurrences across religious and non religious perspectives on happiness that provide a common ground for further cross cultural and interreligious exploration What the book makes clear is that happiness is not a static or monolithic category It is an ongoing process of being and becoming striving and seeking living ethically and meaningfully as well as arriving at a tranquil state of being This multifaceted volume makes a fresh contribution to the contemporary study of happiness and is valuable reading for scholars and students from religious studies and theology including those interested in interreligious dialogue and the psychology of religion as well as positive psychology

Spiritual Life and Secular Thought King-Ho Leung, Lecturer in Theology Philosophy and the Arts King-Ho Leung, 2026-01-06 Contemporary western society has witnessed an emerging trend of people identifying as spiritual but not religious In this volume King Ho Leung seeks to take seriously the notion of spiritual but not religious as a philosophical concept Drawing on insights from philosophers such as Martin Heidegger Hannah Arendt Gilles Deleuze and Giorgio Agamben Spiritual Life and Secular Thought develops a philosophical definition of spirituality that is not only applicable to religious and non religious outlooks alike but moreover can shed light on the character of human experience and existence in the world

Poems of Devotion Luke Hankins, 2012-11-30 Poems of Devotion is a collection of the finest recent poems in the devotional mode which the editor examines in detail in the introductory essay The seventy seven poets collected here demonstrate the ongoing vitality of poetry as a spiritual practice in the long tradition of poets psalmists and mystics from the East and West This is an anthology that will prove deeply rewarding in the classroom at home or in the library of your religious institution
