Economic and Political Weekly ,2001-11 Development In Modern Africa Martin S. Shanguhya,Toyin Falola,2019-10-08 Development in Modern Africa Past and Present Perspectives contributes to our understanding of Africa s experiences with the development process It does so by adopting a historical and contemporary analysis of this experience The book is set within the context of critiques on development in Africa that have yielded two general categories of analysis skepticism and pessimism While not overlooking the shortcomings of development the themes in the book express an optimistic view of Africa s development experiences highlighting elements that can be tapped into to enhance the condition of African populations and their states By using case studies from precolonial colonial and postcolonial Africa contributors to the volume demonstrate that human instincts to improve material social and spiritual words are universal They are not limited to the Western world which the term and process of development are typically associated with Before and after contact with the West Africans have actively created institutions and values that they have actively employed to improve individual and community lives This innovative spirit has motivated Africans to integrate or experiment with new values and structures challenges and solutions to human welfare that resulted from contact with colonialism and the postcolonial global community The book will be of interest to academics in the fields of history African studies and regional studies Media Pluralism and Diversity Peggy Valcke,Miklos Sukosd,Robert Picard,2015-08-06 Adopting a truly global theoretical and multidisciplinary perspective Media Pluralism and Diversity intends to advance our understanding of media pluralism across the globe It compares metrics that have been developed in different parts of the world to assess levels of or threats to media pluralism Agrekon ,1986 Unisa English Studies University of South Africa. Department of English,1978 The Frightened Land Jennifer Benningfield,2006-11-07 An investigation into the spatial politics of separation and division in South Africa principally during the apartheid years and the effects of these physical and conceptual barriers on the land In contrast to the weight of literature focusing on post apartheid South Africa the focus of this book includes the spatial political and cultural landscape practices of the apartheid government and also refers to contemporary work done in Australia England and the US It probes the uncertainty and ambiguity of identities and cultures in post apartheid society in order to gain a deep understanding of the history that individuals and society now confront Drawing on a wealth of research materials including literature maps newspapers monuments architectural drawings government legislation tourist brochures political writing and oral histories this book is well illustrated throughout and is a unique commentary on the spatial politics of a time of enormous change Africa Insight ,2006 Perspectives on Western Sahara Anouar Boukhars,Jacques Roussellier,2013-12-18 The ongoing conflict in Western Sahara is one of the more intractable legacies of European colonization in North Africa Following the withdrawal of Spain this territorial dispute escalated in 1975 into a war of independence between the Sahrawi people of the Polisario Front who were backed by Algeria and the states of Mauritania and Morocco In 1976 the Polisario Front

established the Sahrawi Arab Democratic Republic which was not admitted in the UN but won recognition by a few states After multiple peace efforts the conflict reemerged in 2005 as the independence Intifada Today the Polisario Front controls about 20% of Western Sahara At the heart of the conflict lie geopolitical interests and incompatible claims aggravated by the use of military force and decades of mostly unproductive diplomatic maneuvers by international bodies and regional or foreign powers This thorough impartial survey brings together some of the best experts on the Sahara question to provide a broad based analysis of the problem from a range of perspectives Featuring new research the chapters examine the roots of the conflict its dynamics and potential solutions This groundbreaking text also addresses questions of law human rights natural resources from an analytical point of view Contributed by scholars from North Africa Europe and the U S it is an essential contribution to the literature of Middle East and African studies The United Nations and Decolonization Nicole Eggers, Jessica Lynne Pearson, Aurora Almada e Santos, 2020-07-27 Differing interpretations of the history of the United Nations on the one hand conceive of it as an instrument to promote colonial interests while on the other emphasize its influence in facilitating self determination for dependent territories The authors in this book explore this dynamic in order to expand our understanding of both the achievements and the limits of international support for the independence of colonized peoples This book will prove foundational for scholars and students of modern history international history and postcolonial history Guide to Microforms in Print ,2009 Shrouded Witness Francis Omondi, 2025-06-30 The history of Christianity in Africa has often been told as a story of Western missions As such the contributions of local converts in shaping mission praxis and impacting the success of Christian witness on African soil has often been ignored In this study Dr Francis Omondi seeks to rectify historic omissions by exploring the role of African converts such as Reuben Omulo in establishing the Anglican Church in the Nyanza Province of western Kenya Utilizing Johannes Kritzinger s encounterological approach Omondi presents the growth of the church in Central Nyanza as the result of complex and dynamic encounters between Luo culture and Church Mission Society CMS theology Examining seven areas of belief and praxis such as contextual understanding interpretation of religious and cultural tradition and perspectives on the role of religious leaders he explores how CMS missionaries were impacted and ultimately transformed through their encounters with the Luo people and vice versa Filled with practical implications for the church in Kenya and beyond this study highlights the radical and often surprising power of encounter as the gospel becomes incarnate in all cultures and all places African Books in Print ,1978 Unisa Latin American Report ,1997 Index to South African Periodicals ,1976 British Bulletin of Publications on Latin America, the Caribbean, Portugal, and Spain ,2000 Humanitas; Tydskrif Vir Navorsing in Die Geesteswetenskappe ,1975 Financial Mail ,1987 XXX International Congress of Psychology: Abstracts Michele Robert, 2017-10-03 The abstracts of the XXX International Congress of Psychology July 2012 Cape Town are published as a supplement to Volume 47 of the International Journal of Psychology The published volume includes the abstracts of the
