Development Studies 202013 Question Papers:

Mzala Nxumalo, Leftist Thought and Contemporary South Africa Robert J. Balfour, 2024-10-04 Written as a tribute to the revolutionary intellectual and leader Mzala Nxumalo this book discusses the significance of his work in the context of contemporary South African left politics It explores the history and struggle of the apartheid era that preceded the advent of democracy to analyze a crucial aspect of the national question that is the quest for the establishment of a united South Africa to overcome racist and sexist policies that create and nurture divisions among black people The subjects in this book deal with a wide range of topics including the new social economic and political challenges facing democratic South Africa the need to reexamine the critique of capitalism in the 21st century the relationship between race class and community struggles and the ecological challenges under capitalism Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa Extraction/Exclusion

Stephanie Postar, Negar Elodie Behzadi, Nina Nikola Doering, 2023-11-24 Extraction Exclusion draws and builds on scholarship from across the social sciences to show that natural resource extraction is predicated on exclusions This innovative work portrays how inclusionary language and practices paradoxically often result in further exclusions concealing unchanged systems of domination and dispossession and reproducing violent exploitative processes on the ground

Bilingualism and Bilingual Education: Politics, Policies and Practices in a Globalized Society B. Gloria Guzmán Johannessen, 2019-01-14 This volume presents a multinational perspective on the juxtaposition of language and politics Bringing together an international group of authors it offers theoretical and historical constructs on bilingualism and bilingual education It highlights the sociocultural complexities of bilingualism in societies where indigenous and other languages coexist with colonial dominant and other prestigious immigrant languages It underlines the linguistic diaspora and expansion of English as the world's lingua franca and their impact on indigenous and other minority languages Finally it features models of language teaching and teacher education This book challenges the existent global conditions of non dominant languages and furthers the discourse on language politics and policies It does so by pointing out the need to change the bilingual multilingual educational paradigm across nations and all levels of educational systems Masculinity,

War and Violence Ann-Dorte Christensen, Palle Rasmussen, 2018-04-19 Addressing the relationship between masculinity war and violence this book covers these themes broadly and across different disciplines These analyses are located at different levels public policies at the macro level resistance and independence movements at the meso level and masculine subjectivities processes of mobilization and radicalization at the micro level The ten contributions encompass four recurring themes violent masculinities and how contemporary societies and regimes cope with traditional violent rituals and extreme violence against women popular written and visual fiction about war and masculine rationalities gender relations in social movements of rebellion and national transformation and masculinity in civil society under conditions of war and post war Taking into account different geographical contexts the book emphasizes the relationship between the local and the global as well as the importance of understanding gender and masculinity in their intersectional interrelations with religion race ethnicity class and locality This book was originally published as a special issue of NORMA International Journal for Masculinity Studies Mapping ASEAN David Carden,2019-09-10 For half a century ten dynamic nations in Southeast Asia have been implementing a shared vision of economic growth sustainable development and cultural progress Today the economies of those nations are linked inextricably with the future of greater Asia as well as with the United States and the other Western countries With authoritarianism and protectionism on the rise around the world and the catastrophic effects of global warming making action urgent the nations that form the Association of Southeast Asia Nations are more relevant and under greater political and social stress than ever In these illuminating pages David Carden the first American resident ambassador to ASEAN paints a vivid portrait of the regional and global cooperation required to meet today and interconnected future Carden takes us behind the scenes as the leaders of these ten nations work to prepare their countries and their region for the 21st century Carden persuasively argues that the unfolding story of the ASEAN nations is a story for the entire worldthat we are all increasingly interdependent and confronted with the existential need to solve the same set of challenges The Political Economy of Microfinance Philip Mader,2016-01-12 According to the author rather than alleviating poverty microfinance financialises poverty By indebting poor people in the Global South it drives financial expansion and opens new lands of opportunity for the crisis ridden global capital markets This book raises fundamental concerns about this widely celebrated tool for social development Archives, Recordkeeping and Social Justice David A. Wallace,Wendy M. Duff,Renée Saucier,Andrew Flinn,2020-05-10 Archives Recordkeeping and Social Justice expands the burgeoning literature on archival social justice and impact Illuminating how diverse factors shape the relationship between archives recordkeeping systems and recordkeepers this book depicts struggles for different social justice objectives Discussions and debates about social justice are playing out across many disciplines fields of practice societal sectors and governments and yet one dimension cross cutting these actors and engagement spaces has remained unexplored the role of recordkeeping and archiving To clarify and elaborate this connection this volume provides a rigorous account of the engagement of archives and records and their keepers in struggles for social justice Drawing upon multidisciplinary praxis and scholarship contributors to the volume examine social justice from historical and contemporary perspectives and promote impact methodologies that align with culturally responsive democratic Indigenous and transformative assessment Underscoring the multiplicity of transformative social justice impacts influenced by recordmaking recordkeeping and archiving the book presents nine case studies from around the world that link the past to the present and offer pathways towards a more just future Archives Recordkeeping and Social Justice will be an essential reading for researchers and students engaged in the study of archives truth and reconciliation processes social justice and human rights It should also be of great interest to archivists records managers and information professionals Gender, Nutrition, and the Human Right to Adequate Food Anne C. Bellows, Flavio L.S. Valente, Stefanie Lemke, María Daniela Núñez Burbano de Lara, 2015-12-07 This book introduces the human right to adequate food and nutrition as evolving concept and identifies two structural disconnects fueling food insecurity for a billion people and disproportionately affecting women children and rural food producers the separation of women s rights from their right to adequate food and nutrition and the fragmented attention to food as commodity and the medicalization of nutritional health Three conditions arising from these disconnects are discussed structural violence and discrimination frustrating the realization of women s human rights as well as their private and public contributions to food and nutrition security for all many women s experience of their and their children s simultaneously independent and intertwined subjectivities during pregnancy and breastfeeding being poorly understood in human rights law and abused by poorly regulated food and nutrition industry marketing practices and the neoliberal economic system s interference both with the autonomy and self determination of women and their communities and with the strengthening of sustainable diets based on democratically governed local food systems The book calls for a social movement led reconceptualization of the right to adequate food toward incorporating gender women s rights and nutrition based on the food sovereignty framework

At the Doors of Legality Michael G. Donovan (City planner), 2007 Urban land policy design and administration are undergoing a profound democratization throughout the developing world where many housing systems operate outside planning codes and lawyers law City planners have emerged as gatekeepers of legal property when only a generation ago federal agencies controlled most land reform programs Simultaneously legislation such as Brazil s Statute of the City has accommodated adverse possession and a wider gamut of tenure that individual titling programs often discredited To date however there has been little agreement on what interventions enable planners to incorporate a continuum of land rights This dissertation examines the emergence and implementation of three flexible models of property legalization in Brazilian informal settlements These include community designed zoning on municipal land Recife s PREZEIS regularization of individual plots on unauthorized subdivisions Rio de Janeiro s Nucleo de Regularizacao de Loteamentos Morar Legal Program and a program sponsored by Brazil s Ministry of Cities that offers leasehold to residents on federal property Papel Passado This research addresses how property markets are formed through interaction between titling 1 logics from above and individual motivations of residents favelados from below It identifies which communities are being legalized which are being excluded and the processes responsible for these patterns

Mechanization for Rural Development Josef Kienzle, John E. Ashburner, B. G. Sims, 2013 This publication gives a wide ranging perspective on the present state of mechanization in the developing world and as such constitutes a solid platform on which to build strategies for a sustainable future Farm mechanization forms an integral plank in the implementation of sustainable crop production intensification methodologies and sustainable intensification necessarily means that the protection of natural resources and the production of ecosystem services go hand in hand with intensified production practices This requires specific mechanization measures to allow crops to be established with minimum soil disturbance to allow the soil to be protected under organic cover for as long as possible and to establish crop rotations and associations to feed the soil and to exploit crop nutrients from various soil horizons This work is the starting point to help the reader understand the complexities and requirements of the task ahead Development Studies Reader Chuo Kikuu cha
