Advanced Head and Neck Cancer: from Organ Preservation Strategies to extended resections and reconstruction Vittorio Rampinelli, Francesco Missale, Filippo Marchi, Claudio Sampieri, 2025-09-22. Head and neck cancer represents a significant challenge in oncology due to its intricate anatomy, diverse etiology, and potential for functional impairment. Over the years, there has been a paradigm shift in the management of advanced head and neck cancer, marked by the evolution from traditional treatment approaches towards more nuanced strategies focusing on organ preservation, induction chemotherapy, immunotherapy, extended resections, and meticulous reconstruction. The goal of this research topic is multifaceted: Knowledge Advancement—we seek to consolidate the latest research and insights in the field of advanced head and neck cancer; disseminating cutting-edge findings and novel approaches; By synthesizing diverse perspectives and expertise, the special issue aims to contribute to the collective understanding of the disease process; combination of treatment modalities and related outcomes.

Impact and implications of AI methods and tools for the future of education Kingsley Okoye, Samira Hosseini, Kamal Kant Hiran, Julius Nganji, 2024-06-07. The congruence of technology such as AI and its use for education can help transform the different pedagogical practices and future of education. Educational organizations like The UNESCO and The World Bank are already calling for research and development-oriented projects and creation/mobilization of technological initiatives on how to re-imagine education and operationalize the use of digital technologies for its purpose: the Digitized Education. Those goals mean or include methodological approaches and wide adoption of the AI methods in fostering education in the classroom or learning environments. Also noteworthy is the fact that digitized education is now an inevitable and integral element to achieving the global sustainable development goals (SDGs), particularly the SDG4 that promotes quality of education.
