If you are a team integrator, you should have received an email about the annual changes to the calendar. The new rules apply quarterly about when the changes take effect and how they affect you. But if you're general practice, there's a simple change you can make: change your calendar to match your business calendar. You can do this in a few ways:

- Change your calendar to match your business calendar. This is the simplest way to make sure you're always on top of the changes.

online version of Journal of Interpersonal Violence (2009) provides a helpful and accessible format for understanding the role of the Internet in the family during global economic crises. The authors argue that the Internet tends to contribute negatively and not positively to increasing mutual respect and understanding between spouses. Although technology may be used to provide new avenues for conflict, with some exceptions, it appears to be the most effective method for maintaining relationships during global economic crises.
