Cartesian Sonata And Other Novellas:

Cartesian Sonata and Other Novellas William H. Gass, 2009 From the award winning author of The Tunnel and A Temple of Texts come four interrelated novellas that explore good and evil action and thought redemption and possession The reader will encounter here a traveling salesman who gets lost in the kitschy clutter of a small town in Illinois a young woman in rural Iowa who loses touch with the outside world and turns to the poetry of Elizabeth Bishop as anchor and the coming of age story of a devilish young man named Luther who might as well be called Lucifer These stories are filled with the familiar style brilliance philosophy and wit that fans of William Gass have come to expect and cherish Musical Stimulacra Ivan Delazari, 2020-12-29 The title coinage of this book stimulacra refers to the fundamental capacity of literary narrative to stimulate our minds and senses by simulating things through words Musical stimulacra are passages of fiction that readers are empowered to transpose into mental simulations of music The book theorizes how fiction can generate musical experience explains what constitutes that experience and explores the musical dimensions of three American novels William T Vollmann's Europe Central 2005 William H Gass's Middle C 2013 and Richard Powers's Orfeo 2014 Musical Stimulacra approaches fiction's music from a readerly perspective Instead of looking at how novels forever fail to compensate for music's physical structural and affective properties the book concentrates on what literary narrative can do musically Negotiating common grounds for cognitive audionarratology and intermediality studies Musical Stimulacra builds its case on the assumption that among other things fiction urges us to listen to musical words and worlds Who's Who of Twentieth Century Novelists Tim Woods, 2008-02-21 Taking in novelists from all over the globe from the beginning of the century to the present day this is the most comprehensive survey of the leading lights of twentieth century fiction Superb breadth of coverage and over 800 entries by an international team of contributors ensures that this fascinating and wide ranging work of reference will be invaluable to anyone with an interest in modern fiction Authors included range from Joseph Conrad to Albert Camus and Franz Kafka to Chinua Achebe Who's Who of Twentieth Century Novelists gives a superb insight into the richness and diversity of the twentieth century novel The Baroque Night Spencer Golub, 2018-09-15 In The Baroque Night authorial idiosyncrasy hybridizes the concepts of baroque and noir across the fields of film theater literature and philosophy arguing for mental function as form as an impossible object a container in which the container itself is the thing contained The book is an experiment in thinking difference and thinking differently an ethics of otherness and the abstract Spencer Golub inverts the unreality of the real and the reality of fiction exposing the tropes of memory identity and authenticity as a scenic route through life that ultimately blocks the view The Baroque Night draws upon materials that have not previously been included in studies of either the baroque or film noir while offering new perspectives on other more familiar sources Leibniz's concepts of the monad and compossibility provide organizing thought models and death fear and mental illness cast their anamorphic images across surfaces that are deeper and closer than they at first appear Key characters and situations in the book derive from the works of Alfred Hitchcock Henri Georges Clozet Jean Pierre Melville Oscar Wilde Georges Perec Patricia Highsmith William Shakespeare Jean Racine Pierre Corneille and Arthur Conan Doyle among many others This is virtuality and reality for the phobic making it a fascinating and viable document of and episteme for the anxious age in which we always find ourselves living though not yet fully alive This performance of suspect evidence speaks to and in the ways we are organically inauthentic the cause of our own causality and our own worst eyewitnesses to all that appears and disappears in space and time Conversations with William H. Gass William H. Gass,2003
