Cartographies Of Place:

Cartographies of Place Michael Darroch, Janine Marchessault, 2014-04-11 Engaging with place image and media to understand the complexity of urban life Cartographies of Place and Identity, 2001 My thesis presents creative non fiction and contemporary painting which investigate place and identity as lyrical mappings of language and postcolonial histories Written language used in conjunction with visual language produces meaning that is read through the use of text The mapping of location and identity provides a polyphonic site and the resulting investigations are assigned textual and visual vocabularies My lyric essays allow the interweaving of these multiple narratives of the psycho social aspects of identity to articulate a multi cultural heritage within a specific location The visual art works provide for the arrangement of place and identity as compositional components for contemplation of the multiple interpretations of these ideas This research seeks to map visual and written language through a process that interweaves intuition and intention reflecting the pluralistic nature of these conceptual underpinnings of place and identity Teaching Space, Place, and Literature Robert Tally Jr., 2017-10-30 Space place and mapping have become key concepts in literary and cultural studies The transformational effects of postcolonialism globalization and the rise of ever more advanced information technologies helped to push space and spatiality into the foreground as traditional spatial or geographic limits are erased or redrawn Teaching Space Place and Literature surveys a broad expanse of literary critical theoretical historical territories as it presents both an introduction to teaching spatial literary studies and an essential guide to scholarly research Divided into sections on key concepts and issues teaching strategies urban spaces place race and gender and spatiality periods and genres this comprehensive book is the ideal way to approach the teaching of space and place in the humanities classroom Cultural Constellations, Place-Making and Ethnicity in Eastern India, c. 1850-1927 Swarupa Gupta, 2017-11-01 In Cultural Constellations Place Making and Ethnicity in Eastern India c 1850 1927 Swarupa Gupta outlines a fresh paradigm moving beyond stereotypical representations of eastern India as a site of ethnic fragmentation The book traces unities by exploring intersections between 1 cultural constellations 2 place making and 3 ethnicity Centralising place making it tells the story of how people made places mediating caste religious linguistic contestations It offers new meanings of region in Eastern Indian and global contexts by showing how an interregional arena comprising Bengal Assam and Orissa was forged Using historical tracts novels poetry and travelogues the book argues that commonalities in Eastern India were linked to imaginings of Indian nationhood The analysis contains interpretive strategies for mediating federalist separatisms and fragmentation in contemporary India Intimately Situated Stories of Place Iris Berger, 2024-11-10 This edited volume illuminates how intimate relations with place can transform early childhood pedagogy by presenting a diverse range of situated place stories The book begins to answer big questions facing the early childhood education community including What is situated locally responsive education at a time when both researchers and educators grapple with their responsibility and response ability to initiate and inspire alternative environmental ethics and anticolonial approaches that invite active participation from children. Chapters will include work from Indigenous and non Indigenous researchers and educators who center the role of place in cultural identity, community building and anticolonial projects throughout their work and teaching.

Nomadic Theatre Liesbeth Groot Nibbelink, 2019-04-18. Fluid stages, morphing theatre spaces, ambulant spectators and occasionally disappearing performers: these are some of the key ingredients of nomadic theatre. They are also theatre's response to life in the 21st century, which is increasingly marked by the mobility of people, information technologies and services. While examining how contemporary theatre exposes and queries this mobile turn in society, Liesbeth Groot Nibbelink introduces the concept of nomadic theatre as a vital tool for analyzing how movement and mobility affect and implicate the theatre, how this makes way for local operations and lived spaces, and how physical movements are stepping stones for theorizing mobility at large. This book focuses on ambulatory performances and performative installations, asking how they stage movement and in turn mobilize the stage. By analyzing the work of leading European artists such as Rimini Protokoll, Dries Verhoeven, Ontroerend Goed and Signa, Nomadic Theatre demonstrates that mobile performances radically rethink the conditions of the stage and alter our understanding of spectatorship. Nomadic Theatre instigates connections across disciplinary fields and feeds dramaturgical analysis with insights derived from media theory, urban philosophy, cartography, architecture and game studies. It illustrates how theatre as a material form of thought creatively and critically engages with mobile existence both on the stage and in society.

Making Place, Making Self Inger J. Birkeland, 2005. Making Place, Making Self explores new understandings of place and place making in late modernity, covering key themes of place and space, tourism and mobility, sexual difference and subjectivity. By combining ground-breaking theory with her innovative use of case studies, Inger Birkeland here provides a major contribution to the fields of cultural geography, tourism and feminist studies.

Maps James R. Akerman, Robert W. Karrow (J.), 2007. Introducing readers to a wide range of maps from different time periods and a variety of cultures, this book confirms the vital roles of maps throughout history in commerce, art, literature and national identity.

City of Screens Jasmine Nadua Trice, 2021-02-08. In City of Screens, Jasmine Nadua Trice examines the politics of cinema circulation in early 2000s Manila. She traces Manila's cinema landscape by focusing on the primary locations of film exhibition and distribution: the pirated DVD district, mall multiplexes, art house cinemas, the university film institute and state-sponsored cinematheques. In the wake of digital media piracy and the decline of the local commercial film industry, the rising independent cinema movement has been a site of contestation between filmmakers and the state, each constructing different notions of a prospective national public film audience. Discourses around audiences become more salient given that films by independent Philippine filmmakers are seldom screened to domestic audiences despite their international success. City of Screens provides a deeper understanding of the debates about the competing roles of the film industry, the public and the state in national culture in the Philippines and beyond.

 Michael Miller,2003 This work considers how myth collective memory and history interact in the construction of place based identities in the city and how such identities become crucial stakes in determining the future of particular areas neighbourhoods and districts By analysing two case studies of public protest against urban planning projects the author looks at how dominant discourses promoted by urban elites have been challenged by groups with little experience of participating in urban governance Place Maps Audrey Sprenger,2000 Landscapes and Learning Margaret Somerville,Kerith Power,Phoenix de Carteret,2009 Places are made after their stories Just as place names describe complex and conflicted place making aspirations so with all marks associated with the marking of places tracks the symbolic representation of these in song dance and poetic speech indeed all the technologies that join up distances into narratives they all inscribe the earth s surface with the forms of stories Of course these are not the same as the foundational myths of imperial cultures whose aim is to displace any prior discourse of place making They are stories of and as journeys passages in a double sense constitutionally incomplete because they always await their completion in the act of crossing over or meeting which of course is endless Paul Carter Landscapes and Learning maps some of these stories and passageways to open up new place making possibilities The book uses the lens of place to explore how we can respond differently to some of the major questions of our time Postcolonial global concerns such as increased displacement and migration the loss of indigenous knowledges and the imperatives of environmental degradation and climate change require critical educational responses Place studies provides new languages and fresh metaphors to open up interdisciplinary conversations in the space between local and global and indigenous and non indigenous knowledges Through its focus on the mutual constitution of bodies identities histories spaces and places place studies offers a conceptual tool for important cultural and environmental transformations

Cartographies of Exile Karen Elizabeth Bishop,2020-03-31 This book proposes a fundamental relationship between exile and mapping It seeks to understand the cartographic imperative inherent in the exilic condition the exilic impulses fundamental to mapping and the varied forms of description proper to both The vital intimacy of the relationship between exile and mapping compels a new spatial literacy that requires the cultivation of localized dynamic reading practices attuned to the complexities of understanding space as text and texts as spatial artifacts The collection asks what kinds of maps do exiles make How are they conceived drawn read Are they private maps or can they be shaped collectively What is their relationship to memory and history How do maps provide for new ways of imagining the fractured experience of exile and offer up both new strategies for reading displacement and new displaced reading strategies Where does exilic mapping fit into a history of cartography particularly within the twentieth century spatial turn The original work that makes up this interdisciplinary collection presents a varied look at cartographic strategies employed in writing art and film from the pre Contact Americas to the Renaissance to late postmodernism the effects of exile in its many manifestations on cartographic textual systems ways of seeing and forms of reading the challenges of traversing and mapping unstable landscapes and restrictive social and political networks and the felicities and difficulties of both giving into the map and attempting to escape the map that provides for exile in the first place Cartographies of Exile will be of interest to students and scholars working in literary and cultural studies gender sexuality and race studies anthropology art history and architecture film performance visual studies and the fine arts

Representing Place Edward S. Casey, 2002-01-01 You are here a map declares but of course you are not any more than you truly occupy the vantage point into which a landscape painting puts you How maps and paintings figure and reconfigure space as well as our place in it is the subject of Edward S Casey's study an exploration of how we portray the world and its many places Casey's discussion ranges widely from Northern Song landscape painting to nineteenth century American and British landscape painting and photography from prehistoric petroglyphs and medieval portolan charts to seventeenth century Dutch cartography and land survey maps of the American frontier From these culturally and historically diverse forays a theory of representation emerges Casey proposes that the representation of place in visual works be judged in terms not of resemblance but of reconnecting with an earth and world that are not the mere content of mind or language a reconnection that calls for the embodiment and emplacement of the human subject Book jacket

The Top Books of the Year Cartographies Of Place The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Cartographies Of Place : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
