A.1 Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

I bought a large quantity of merchandise and made preparations for a long voyage. Then, with a company of traders, I set out from Baghdad and journeyed many days from island to island, buying, selling and exchanging wherever we dropped anchor. At last we came to a little island that seemed very beautiful.

The passengers went ashore, lit fires, and were soon busy cooking and washing. Some began to eat, drink and be merry, whilst others set out to explore the fair island. Suddenly the captain cried aloud from the ship, "Come aboard speedily. Leave everything and run for your lives. God be with you, for this is not island, but a huge whale floating on the surface of the ocean. On its back sands have settled and trees have grown. The heat from your fires has awakened it. It will plunge below the surface and all will be lost".

Immediately, there was panic. Terrified visitors threw themselves into the sea. Those who could, swam desperately towards the ship.
