A Christmas Carol (Illustrated) Charles Dickens, 2020-11-29 A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens is a novella that was first published in 1843 It is a book that you can read in under two hours which is unlike many books written by Charles Dickens He used his books as social criticisms for what was going on in his world A Christmas Carol tells the story of Ebenezer Scrooge a tightfisted mean spirited man the kind of person who rains on your parade with his sour disposition always complaining and finding fault with everyone The story starts on Christmas Eve and we learn from the narrator that

Scrooge's partner Jacob Marley is dead as a doornail he died seven years ago His clerk Bob Cratchit is copying letters in another room and Scrooge has the door open so that he can make sure that his employee is not using logs to warm up his room His nephew Fred visits to wish him a Merry Christmas and to invite him over for Christmas dinner As usual Scrooge declines the invitation because he is a grouch who wants no part of Christmas What happens to someone why they would become like Scrooge Ebenezer Scrooge is so tightfisted that he resents having to pay Bob for not working Christmas day Before he departs for the day two men who are described as portly are fundraising to feed the hungry and poor but Scrooge has some very harsh and cruel words for them and they leave his office without a donation When he is about to open the door to his home the door knocker is transformed momentarily into the ghostly face of his dead business partner Marley Before he can make too much of what he is seeing the apparition disappears and he sees the door knocker again The reader knows what is going to come next Buy Read Review and Share your reading your experience in the below comments section First distributed on nineteenth December 1843 A Christmas Carol is the first and generally well known in a progression of five books that Charles Dickens composed for the Christmas season The natural story of A Christmas Carol about Ebenezer Scrooge and the three spirits who frequent him has become the pre prominent customary Christmas story giving happiness and a Merry Christmas for some ages A Christmas Carol Charles Dickens,2000 A miser learns the true meaning of Christmas when three ghostly visitors review his past and foretell his future Christmas Carol Charles Dickens,2014-11-25 Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens Christmas Carol is one of the novels those gained instant acclaim and great sales ranks The story of this short novella revolves around one Mr Scrooge who went to a transformation after the visits of ghosts to him Charles Dickens was born in England in 1812 He grew up in a poor family do not attend school but learned to read and write by his mother Unusual talent allows him to become one of the greatest writers of the 19 century He is the author of many novels two of which are among the masterpieces of children's literature The Adventures of Oliver Twist and A Christmas Carol A Christmas Carol is one of the most fascinating and magical Christmas stories inspired numerous film and literary themes over the years As in his other works poor childhood of the author reflects on the novel there are suggestions that the conflicting feelings of Dickens to his father inspired the construction of the image of the miser Ebenezer Scrooge as a negative but subsequently become positive hero On Christmas Eve a notorious old miser named Scrooge who does not love anyone but himself and for whom money is the most important thing in the world while saving them becomes the cause of life and death is visited by the ghost of his late partner Marley in chains followed by three more mysterious ghosts the ghosts of Christmases They reveal in front of the miser past present and future After this magical night for him Scrooge realizes that no money and wealth and love is the most precious thing something of this world and generosity makes us real people So Ebenezer Scrooge who hates Christmas more than anything because he does not like how all celebrate mooching fun and wasting money on nonsense even his assistant Bob Cratchit wants to enjoy a day off because it was Christmas suddenly finds
