Critical Concepts in Queer Studies and Education Nelson M. Rodriguez, Wayne J. Martino, Jennifer C. Ingrey, Edward Brockenbrough, 2016-08-30 This book advances a broad constellation of critical concepts situated within the field of queer studies and education Collectively the concepts take up a cross section of scholarship that speaks to various political epistemological theoretical methodological and pedagogical concerns Given the ongoing global centrality of sociocultural and political developments related to the topic of LGBTQ in the twenty first century the concepts in this volume and the issues raised by each contributor will have wide international appeal among researchers scholars educators students and activists working at the intersection of queer studies and education

Education Policy and Contemporary Theory Kalervo N. Gulson, Matthew Clarke, Eva Bendix Petersen, 2015-06-12 This book aims to posit theory as a central component to the study of education and education policy Providing clear introductory entries into contemporary critical theories and their take up in education policy studies the book offers a generative invitation to further reading thought and exploration Instead of prescribing how theory should be used the contributors elaborate on a set of possibilities for researching and critiquing education policy Education Policy and Contemporary Theory explores examples of how theoretical approaches generate a variety of questions for policy analysis demonstrating the importance of theory as a necessary and inevitable resource for exploring and contesting various policy realms and dominant discourses Each chapter provides a short overview of key aspects of a particular theory or perspective followed by suggestions of methodological implications and recommended readings to extend the outlined ideas Organized around two parts the first section focuses on theorists while the second section looks at specific theories and concepts with the intention that each part makes explicit the connection between theory and methodology in relation to education policy research Each contribution is carefully written by established and emerging scholars in the field to introduce new scholars to theoretical concepts and policy questions and to inspire extend or challenge established policy researchers who may be considering working in new areas

Decolonising African University Knowledges, Volume 1 Amasa P. Ndofirepi, Felix Maringe, Simon Vurayai, Gloria Erima, 2022-10-14 This timely work investigates the possibility of unyoking and decolonising African university knowledges from colonial relics It claims that academics from socially politically and geographically underprivileged communities in the South need to have their voices heard outside of the global power structure The book argues that African universities need a relevant curriculum that is related to the cultural and environmental experiences of diverse African learners in order to empower themselves and transform the world It is written by African scholars and is based on theoretical and practical debates on the epistemological complexities affecting and afflicting diversity in higher education in Africa It examines who are the primary custodians of African university knowledges as well as how this relates to forms of exclusion affecting women the differently abled the rural poor and ethnic minorities as well as the significance of the Fourth Industrial Revolution in the future of African universities The book takes an epistemological approach to university teaching and learning addressing issues such as decolonization and identity social closure and diversity disputes and the obstacles that come with the neoliberal paradigm The book will be necessary reading for academics scholars and postgraduate students in the fields of Sociology of Education decolonising education Inclusive Education and Philosophy of Education as it resonates with existing discourses Bowker's Best Reference Books: Author index.
