Conversations With The Elephant:

Conversations with the Elephant Michael Biondi, 2014-12-21 The debut poetry collection by Mike Biondi      Dealing with the Elephant in the Room Dr. Mike Bechtle, 2017-05-16 Most people want to avoid tough conversations Whether it's with a spouse a friend a boss a coworker or a child tough conversations create high anxiety and often lingering resentments Communication expert Dr Mike Bechtle offers practical help He equips readers with the skills they need in order to handle conflict with the important people in their lives Readers learn to be better prepared for hard conversations by learning to listen to give and receive genuine feedback and to saturate relationships with kindness With the right skills and tools anyone can feel more confident handling the elephant in the room and other conversational quicksand      Conversations with Gus Van Sant Mario Falsetto, 2015-03-12 One of the most talented and imaginative artists of independent cinema Gus Van Sant established himself with a number of important movies of the late 1980s and early 1990s Beginning with Mala Noche the 1986 gay classic of personal film expression followed by two key works of the American indie movement Drugstore Cowboy and My Own Private Idaho Van Sant films often feature characters on the borders of mainstream society Subsequent films included hits misses and a notorious remake of Psycho Regardless of the critical or commercial response to his work Van Sant has maintained a vision that is unique among contemporary filmmakers Conversations with Gus Van Sant is the first critical study to include both extensive original interviews with the director as well as discussions of his entire body of work The exchanges between film scholar Mario Falsetto and the indie filmmaker cover fifteen films directed by Van Sant over a period of thirty years Throughout these discussions Van Sant talks candidly about each film's production history visual style editing patterns and creative soundwork The director also expounds on his work with actors the relationship of independent filmmakers to the wider film industry and many other subjects related to his filmmaking process The conversations examine the rich thematic explorations of Van Sant's films which often revolve around the search for love and community on the margins of society and feature a fascination with death From experimental films such as Gerry Last Days Elephant and Paranoid Park where Van Sant rebooted his understanding of cinema and his relationship to the Hollywood film industry to Milk and Promised Land this book explores the rich network of meanings in the director's work By melding the author's critical perspective with the filmmaker's own ideas Conversations with Gus Van Sant creates a wider perspective on one of the most iconoclastic and imaginative directors of the last thirty years      Stop Talking and Listen to Yourself! Dalton A. Kehoe, 2021-06-08 This book clarifies how automatic most of our talk is Using a simple version of our mental processes I show how we easily get along with others but also how things fall apart when we're threatened Mostly we don't think before we talk Our talk flows naturally from our adaptive unconscious as it responds to whatever situation we are in It drives our talk To illustrate its power I represent it using the metaphor of the 5 ton working Elephant Its 110 pound Rider represents our conscious mind I also summarize all of our talk into three basic forms CONNECT CONTROL and DIALOGUE talk The first two forms demonstrate how we talk to draw people closer to us or dominate them using our adaptive unconscious minds The third form shows the reader how to wake up their conscious mind in difficult situations and speak in order to repair communication disasters Dealing with the Elephant in the Room Mike Bechtle,2017 Conversations with the Animate 'Other' Aloka Parasher-Sen,2023-09-30 Human interventions with living entities have had to be in a constant state of negotiating space necessary for co habitation with animals birds trees plants grasslands forests hills water bodies in the creation of villages and other settlements The book argues that negotiating this space meant sharing which impacted economic strategies religious experiences cultural interactions and oral performances that humans have strategized and preserved This intersectional theme through individual case studies ultimately provides us the civilizational ethos of the Indian sub continent on how human non human relations informed it The book provides a window on how this relationship was represented in a variety of material and literary texts visual representations archival records folklore and oral testimonies It brings to the fore these narratives over the longue dur e to explicate the complex and delicate relationships in region specific ecological settings and thus give readers a perspective that crosses disciplinary and conceptual boundaries

Test Talk Amy H. Greene,Glennon Doyle Melton,2007 Under No Child Left Behind nearly every teacher faces a high stakes balancing act managing the often incompatible responsibilities of teaching students meaningfully or preparing them for standardized tests Through their experiences teaching at a school that struggled to meet state test standards driven by NCLB authors Amy Greene and Glennon Melton discovered a way to raise scores without compromising their strong beliefs about good teaching and learning In Test Talk Amy and Glennon share their story and their proven approach This compelling book shows that teachers don t have to choose between best practice teaching and test preparation effective test taking strategies can be integrated into authentic reading instruction The authors demonstrate how to improve performance on tests without resorting to teaching to the test mnemonic devices or other gimmicks Instead they focus on encouraging student readers to explore tests as a specific genre containing unique language format and cues Concise and easy to use Test Talk includes lesson plans and practice passages as well as sample questions and suggested language to use during lessons Throughout the book classroom vignettes show how seamlessly one can weave the test genre into reading workshop and connect those specialized skills to more general reading strategies It is an invaluable resource for any teacher who struggles with how to prepare kids for tests without sacrificing real teaching and learning The Elephant in the Office Diane a. Ross,Kathryn Calhoun,Nelson Dewey,2013-04 A practical approach to difficult conversations in the workplace with lots of real life examples to keep the reader investing their time and can you believe it it s actually fun to read Yvonne Mann President LeaderShifts Helpful concrete examples written in practical lay terms This book will help anyone who chooses to read it Chris Dragseth Director retired Service Canada Human Resources and Skills Development Difficult Conversations at Work Go from Nightmare to No Problem As a former lawyer Diane A Ross thought she was a difficult conversations expert so
