Aesthetic Teaching Pedagogies Reynaldo B. Inocian, 2018-10-09 This book presents an assortment of teaching and assessment strategies appropriate for 21st century learners based on the author's 25 years of teaching experience in private and state school institutions in the Philippines. It highlights the outcomes-based assessment of learning the curriculum basics for arts-based teaching learning activities based on the integrated arts for an effective instructional process and examples in the teaching of critical thinking, communication, collaboration, and creativity known as the Four Cs. While the monograph focuses on the author's local context, a plethora of citations provides clear connections that address learner diversity in recent global education contexts. The text is a useful guide for students who want to pursue a degree in teaching as well as novice and expert teachers, university professors, and advocates for teaching and learning.

Advances in Applications of Rasch Measurement in Science Education Xiufeng Liu, William J. Boone, 2023-07-31 This edited volume presents latest development in applications of Rasch measurement in science education. It includes a conceptual introduction chapter and a set of individual chapters. The introductory chapter reviews published studies applying Rasch measurement in the field of science education and identifies important principles of Rasch measurement and best practices in applications of Rasch measurement in science education. The individual chapters contributed by authors from Canada, China, Germany, Philippines, and the USA cover a variety of current topics on measurement concerning science conceptual understanding, scientific argumentation, scientific reasoning, three-dimensional learning, knowledge in use, and cross-cutting concepts of the Next Generation Science Standards, medical education, learning experiences, machine scoring, bias, formative assessment, and teacher knowledge of argument. There are additional chapters on advances in Rasch analysis techniques and technology, including R, Bayesian estimation, comparison between joint maximum likelihood (JML) and marginal maximum likelihood (MML) estimations on model data fit, and enhancement to Rasch models by Cognitive Diagnostic Models and Latent Class Analysis. The volume provides readers who are new and experienced in applying Rasch measurement with advanced and exemplary applications in the forefront of various areas of science education research.

Serving Library Users from Asia John Hickok, 2019-06-12 Asian populations are among some of the fastest growing cultural groups in the US. While books on serving other target groups in libraries have been published (e.g., disabled, Latino, seniors, etc.), few books on serving library users of Asian heritage have been written. Thus, the timely need for this book. Rather than a generalized overview of Asians as a whole, this book has 24 separate chapters, each on 24 specific Asian countries, cultures of East, Southeast, and South Asia, with a wealth of resources for understanding, interacting with, and serving library users of each culture. Resources include cultural guides, both print and online, language helps, with sample library vocabulary, Asian booksellers, nationwide cultural groups, professional literature, and more. Resources and suggestions are given for all three types of libraries: public, school, and academic, making this book valuable for all librarians. The demographics of each Asian culture numbers and distribution plus history of immigration and international student enrollment is also featured As a bonus each chapter spotlights a US public school and academic library providing model outreach to Asian library users Additionally this book provides a detailed description and analysis of libraries in each of the 24 Asian countries The history development facilities conditions technology classification systems and more of public school and academic libraries are all discussed with detailed documentation Country conditions influencing libraries and library use are also described literacy levels reading cultures languages and writing systems educational systems and more Based on the author s 15 years of research and travels to Asia this work is a must have for all librarians School Counselling in East and South-East Asia Mark G.

Harrison,Queenie A. Y. Lee,James L. H. Yu,2024-09-09 This book explores trends in the practice of school counselling in East and Southeast Asia in response to socioeconomic changes developments in education and schooling the growth of technology and the legacy of the recent COVID 19 pandemic The volume adopts an ecological perspective taking into account both schools institutional contexts and the sociocultural settings in which school counsellors work Chapters focus on the needs perspectives and expectations of different stakeholders and explore the changing roles and identities of school counsellors Contributions from Mainland China Hong Kong SAR Japan Malaysia The Philippines Singapore and Vietnam provide a wide ranging account of the development of school counselling in the region and set out key themes and priorities for this fast developing field Academics in the field of school counselling practising school counsellors academics involved in training programmes for school counsellors and students will find this an invaluable volume More broadly this text will be of interest to individuals involved in accrediting bodies for international schools in Asia and school leaders tasked with overseeing counselling provision and that of well being Guidance: K-12.
