Frameworks Robert Steiner, 2015-08-30 You often hear in discussions about case interviews that you should not use standard business frameworks and concepts at all because they just don't fit to the specific case question and interviewers don't like it when candidates use standard frameworks to solve cases However when challenging this shallow generalized and popularized statements there aren't any of those arguments remaining on the table It is most definitely true that you can concepts are extremely helpful templates which you can and even should put into your toolbox and use them whenever appropriate if not to the full extent at least partly Such a standard business framework is just a tool and the tool itself is
