Class Politics And The Economy Routledge Revivals:

Class, Politics and the Economy (Routledge Revivals) Stewart Clegg, Paul Boreham, Geoff Dow, 2014-11-06 This study first published in 1986 provides a systematic account of the processes and structure of class formation in the major advanced capitalist societies The focus is on the organizational mechanisms of class cohesion and division theoretically deriving from a neo Marxian perspective Chapters consider the organization and structure of the corporate ruling class the middle class and the working class and are brought together in an overarching analysis of the organization of class in relation to the state and the economy This title will be of particular interest to students researching the impact of recession on societal structure and the processes of political class struggle as well as those with a more general interest in the socio economic theories of Marx Engels and Weber

Class, Politics, and the Economy Stewart Clegg, Paul Boreham, Geoff Dow, 1986 Managing and Organizations Stewart R. Clegg, Tyrone S. Pitsis, Matthew Mount, 2024-11 Covering all the basics as well critically reflecting on the institutions and practices of business life the seventh edition of Managing and Organizations is essential reading for anyone studying organizational behavior at undergraduate or postgraduate level

Social Democracy in Capitalist Society (Routledge Revivals) Richard Scase, 2016-02-05 First published in 1977 This book considers the nature of industrial society contemporary capitalism and the impact of political ideas on social structure These ideas are discussed by reference to the impact of social democracy on the structure of capitalist society in a comparative analysis of Britain and Sweden including an interview survey of industrial workers socio political attitudes The study is concluded by a general discussion of the role of social democracy in capitalist society It is argued that the development of social democracy generates strains which in the long term question the legitimacy of capitalism among industrial manual workers

The Politics of Community-making in New Urban India Ritanjan Das, Nilotpal Kumar, 2023-04-17 This book explores the relationship between the production of new urban spaces and illiberal community making in contemporary India It is based on an ethnographic study in Noida a city at the eastern fringe of the state of Uttar Pradesh bordering national capital Delhi The book demonstrates a flexible planning approach being central to the entrepreneurial turn in India s post liberalisation urbanisation whereby a small scale industrial township is transformed into a real estate driven modern city Its real point of departure however is in the argument that this turn can enable a form of illiberal community making in new cities that are quite different from older metropolises Exclusivist forms of solidarity and symbolic boundary construction stemming from the differences across communities as well as their internal heterogeneities form the crux of this process which is examined in three distinct but often interspersed socio spatial forms planned middle class residential quarters urban villages and migrant squatter colonies The book combines radical geographical conceptualisations of social production of space and neoliberal urbanism with sociological and anthropological approaches to urban community making It will be of interest to researchers in development studies sociology urban studies as well as readers interested in society and politics of contemporary India

South Asia The Political Economy of South Africa Revisited: Tracking and Debating the Minerals-Energy and Financial Complex Benjamin Fine, 2025-12-11 South Africa's political economy is commonly understood as a Minerals Energy and Financial Complex MEFC But the MEC has been misunderstood Specifying the MEFC as a system of accumulation and drawing upon extensive research and engaging in critical debates the originator of the term traces the MEFC from apartheid origins through the ANC's failure to adopt coherent and coordinated policies ultimately leading to degeneration into state capture and beyond Emphasis is placed upon the interaction between South African specificities and globalisation neoliberalisation and financialisation anchoring economic and social reproduction in five lows across investment productivity wages employment and social provision Capital and Power (Routledge Revivals) John Girling, 2010-07-02 First published in 1987 this book comprises a critical evaluation of Marxist Gramscian and pluralist theories of social development the application of these theories chiefly to Third World countries hence consideration of the problems of specificity general theory and social change This is followed by an assessment of the stages of economic development in relation to state power and politics and the role of the external the impact of the world market economy and the security imperative The book is not a discussion of theory but of theory in practice Above all it represents a continuing debate between Marxism and pluralism on the themes of accumulation power legitimacy resulting in convergence Southeast Asia (Routledge Revivals) Richard Higgott, Richard Robison, 2013-10-31 The articles in this edited collection first published in 1985 consider the competing theories of the nature of development and underdevelopment in Southeast Asia Each chapter challenges the academic orthodoxies and dominant traditions of Southeast Asian studies particularly in relation to orientalist history behaviourist political science and development economics Overall the contributions offer an alternative framework for analysis which considers the structural changes to the political economy of Southeast Asia as well as the relationship between the state economy and class at a domestic level This is a fascinating collection of value to students and academics with an interest in Southeast Asian politics economics and history The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1888 The Economic and Labour Relations Review, 1999 Economic and Political Weekly, 2004-03 The Indian Journal of Labour Economics, 2004 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance, 1888 Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2001 Environment & Planning, 2010

Studies in Economics and Political Science London School of Economics and Political Science, 1913 Economics and Religion Paul Oslington, 2003 Paul Oslington has done a simply marvellous job in pulling together the various bits of writing on the relation between economics and religion the collection might surprise quite a few who might have expected this area to be a trifle thin In fact the range and quality of these pieces should impress and delight everyone including all such sceptics Ranging across the history of thought economic theology ethics methodology and the application of economics to the study of religious behaviour these are indeed rich pickings It is a fascinating collection taken from a surprisingly rich vein Well done
