Contemporary Farce on the Global Stage David Gram, 2024-04-09 Contemporary Farce on the Global Stage provides audiences and practitioners a detailed survey of how the genre of farce has evolved in the 21st century. Often dismissed as frivolous, farce speaks a universal language with the power to incisively interrogate our world through laughter. Unlike farces of the past where a successful resolution was a given and we could laugh uproariously at adulterous behaviour, farce no longer guarantees an audience a happy ending where everything works out. Contemporary farce is no longer diverting us with laughter; it is reflecting the fractured world around us. With a foreword by award-winning playwright Ken Ludwig, the book introduces readers to the Mechanics of Farce and the Four Ps, which are key elements for understanding, appreciating, and exploring the form. The Five Doors to Contemporary Farce identify five major categories into which farces fall. Behind each door are a wide selection of plays, modern and contemporary examples from all over the world, written by a diverse group of playwrights who traverse gender, race, ethnicity, and sexual orientation. Supplementing each section are comments, observations, and reflections from award-winning playwrights, directors, actors, designers, dramaturgs, and scholars. Designed specifically to give theatre makers a rounded understanding that will underpin their own productions, this book will also be of use to theatre and performance studies students.

Tshongolo, 2024-12-02 To date, there have been few comprehensive books published which deal specifically with the role of African languages in academia and formal education. Motinyane Mletshe and Tshongolo, as editors, have produced a book that fills this gap. In this timely collection of 21 chapters written in African languages and English, the contributors offer a critique of both language practice in the classroom as well as language planning, policy creation, and implementation challenges. A timely and innovative contribution in the area of language in education, teaching pedagogy, as well as multilingualism.

imperialist powers and calls for the Chinese government to redeem the past humiliations and take back all lost territories The continuing surge of Chinese nationalism in the early 21st century therefore has fed a roiling sense of anxiety in many political capitals about whether a virulent nationalism has emerged to make China's rise anything but peaceful This book addresses this anxiety by examining the domestic sources and foreign policy implications of Chinese nationalism in the early 21st century It is divided into three parts Part I is an overview of the scholarly debate about if the rise of Chinese nationalism has driven China's foreign policy in a more irrational and inflexible direction in the first one and half decades of the 21st century Part II analyzes the construction of Chinese nationalism by a variety of domestic forces including the communist state the angry youth fen qing liberal intellectuals and ethnic groups Part III explores whether Chinese nationalism is affirmative assertive or aggressive through the case studies of China's maritime territorial disputes with Japan in the East China Sea and with several Southeast Asian countries in the South China Sea the border controversy over the ancient Koguryo with Korea and the cross Taiwan Strait relations This book was based on articles published in the Journal of Contemporary China
