China's Foreign Policy Making Yufan Hao, Lin Su, 2005 Various domestic factors impact upon China's foreign policy making, such as bureaucracy, academics, media, and public opinion. This stimulating book examines their increasing influence and focuses in particular on China's policy towards the United States, exploring whether there has been an emergence of societal factors independent of the Communist Party that have begun to exert influence over the policy process It also debates questions such as how it will affect the ability of the Chinese government to frame and implement its policy towards the US and whether it has generated institutional arrangements in China for cooperation on issues such as trade human rights and Taiwan The book provides a better understanding of the role of societal forces in China s foreign policy making process CSCW 2006 ,2006 C/C++ Users Journal ,2001
