 What can a therapist do when faced with the all too familiar client who seems stuck or resistant With this volume veteran therapists Carol and Steve Lankton offer clinicians an effective tool with which they can expand their ability to be successful in therapy through integrating the use of indirection into the more commonly used rational and direct approach This is a book of predesigned stories that the Lanktons and their trainees have told in successful therapy in order to assist clients in their movement toward specific preplanned goals The stories are categorized according to the way they are structured to reach particular types of goals such as changes in affect attitudinal restructuring changes in behavior changes in family structure changes in self image and many others St. Andrew's Cross , 1910 The Rhetorical Power of Children's Literature John H. Saunders, 2016-12-21 The Rhetorical Power of Children's Literature is an edited volume with contributions from established and new scholars of rhetoric offering case studies that analyze a full array of genres in children's literature from picture books to young adult novels Collectively this volume's contributions interrogate how children's literature is a powerful yet under examined space of rhetorical discourse that influences one of the most vulnerable segments of our population This book is singularly unique given that it will be the first collection of essays on children's literature from the distinct perspective of the field of Communication Beyond topical novelty the contributors utilize a range of scholarly methods to analyze instances of the rhetoric of children's literature Consequently essays in this volume may be read for both their specific topical content and as exemplars for multiple methodological approaches to the study of the rhetoric of children's literature Collectively the contributors set out to contribute to our knowledge of how instances of children's literature operate as rhetorical discourses The volume is organized by case studies approached through critical rhetorical lenses that analyze specific instances of children's literature from two distinct stages of children's developmental reading experiences including pre early literacy and fluent reading Structurally the book includes eight content chapters divided evenly with four chapters analyzing books for young children and four chapters analyzing books targeting audiences from late childhood to adolescence An overview of each content chapter accompanies this proposal Marvelous Wonders of the Whole World
