

A photograph of a person's legs walking on a thin wire or tightrope over a body of water. The person is barefoot, and their legs are in mid-stride. The water is calm, and the sky is blue with some clouds. The title 'BALANCING ON THE EDGE' is written in large, white, 3D letters across the middle of the image, with the person's legs walking on the word 'ON'.

Christianity and World Religions Gavin D'Costa, 2009-03-09 Why has the reality of other religions become a big problem for Christianity In the past Christianity has been able to largely ignore other religions but in recent decades not just the reality but the vitality of other religions has become a challenge This accessible book tackles a number of questions arising from these changes is belonging to one religion rather than another merely a matter of cultural preference is salvation the same among all religions and what can be learned from other religions Considering wider issues of how modernity has defined religion Gavin D Costa provides a substantial critique of secular ways of controlling religions and shows how Christianity is very well suited to deal with religious plurality at the doctrinal and social level The book makes a decisive contribution to debates about the clash between Islam and the West arguing that the major threat to religious freedoms come from secularism and that Islam and Christianity both have the resources to develop a vibrant and pluralist public square informed by intellectual debate By engaging with the core questions and suggesting a pathway through the various answers that have been proposed in recent years this is an ideal introduction to the field and one which will help stimulate ideas and discussions

Balancing on the Edge Matthew John, Matthew Hayes ,,Ph D Matthew John Hayes M D,E. Rickerson,2014-12-16 Dr Matthew John Hayes had never met his nephew

Ken Ken was living in Japan far from Matt's home in the mountains of North Carolina. When Matt and Ken struck up an e-mail conversation, it became apparent that Ken felt profound confusion about his life's path. Through Ken's curiosity and Matt's thoughtful responses, an intriguing portrait emerged of a rebellious young man who would become a pioneering emergency physician. Balancing on the Edge is an unflinching memoir expressed through the unique lens of a successful doctor's e-mail correspondence with a young man on the brink of adulthood. The e-mails between uncle and nephew provide the complete story of Matt's remarkable life: his childhood in Brooklyn, his stubbornness as a youth, his army career, his medical education in Germany, and his push for the reform of the American emergency medical system. Through it all, Matt remains true to his own principles and keeps his sense of humor, and he encourages Ken to do the same. Balancing on the Edge is an extraordinarily intimate and insightful memoir aimed at any young person who is questioning his or her direction in life.

Wisdom from the Wild for Youth Julie C. Henry, Tasman Henry, Kepler Henry, 2025-09-09. You Are a Leader Now! Yes, you! Not someday, right now! And the best way to continue growing as a leader? Look to the wild! Every animal, plant, fungus, and bacteria is unique and valuable, just like all types of leaders are essential, whether introverted, extroverted, artistic, analytical, or anything in between. Former zoo and aquarium senior leader turned leadership consultant and executive coach Julie C. Henry is back this time with the help of her teenagers, Tasman and Kepler, to bring Wisdom from the Wild to youth. From vampire bats and barnacles to sharks and poison dart frogs, these potentially unexpected creatures will challenge you to think critically about leadership and what failure, resilience, and empathy have to do with it. With actionable tools, practical case studies, and inspiring stories, you'll become even more confident in making your own decisions as you craft your unique leadership style. Ready to unleash the leader within? Let's dive in and have some fun! Written with readers ages 15-20 in mind, this book is a dynamic extension of her first adult-focused leadership book and introduces six new animals through her leadership tales with tails. Maritime Engineering and Innovation Barrett Williams, ChatGPT, 2024-08-27.
