Compare and Contrast Facts

Compare and contrast is a style of writing that points out the similarities (comparing) and differences (contrasting) of two or more objects. A compare and contrast structure can be expressed in an essay using transition signals or in a non-linear text using graphic organizers.

COMPARE AND CONTRAST IN WRITING

- Compare and contrast structure in writing deals with identifying and showing the similarities and differences of two or more objects that are connected.
- The text structure can either show the similarities of the objects compared or the differences or both.
- Comparing and contrasting can be done in linear and non-linear texts by using different writing devices.
- Comparing and contrasting can be the structure of an essay that can be written more effectively with the use of transition signals.
- Comparing and contrasting concepts can also be shown in non-linear texts through the use of graphic organizers.
