The US Sports Film: A Genre of American Dream Time Danny Gronmaier, 2022-12-05 Sports and film are media that create time. They are temporal not only in the sense that they are defined and regulated by certain temporalities as a result of processes of social negotiation but also in the sense of modulating and intervening in these processes in the first place. They are determined by multiple temporalities referring to and aligning along perceptual corporeality but at the same time they also produce time through and along temporalities of bodily expression and perception. Thus as much as we perceive and understand sports and film by means of our culturally coded conceptions of time, this comprehension is itself already the product of these media's fabrication and modulation of certain audiovisual imaginations of time. This book examines these imaginations with regard to US team sports feature films, understanding the former as the latter's constitutive conflict which makes these films graspable as a genre in the first place. By addressing temporality as an ever new crystallization of a heroic past and an unattainable future in a saturated yet volatile present, this conflict connects substantially to the American Dream as an idea of community building historicity. Departing from a non-taxonomic approach in genre theory and such philosophical recognition of the American Dream as less an ideological narrative but more a social and socially effective imaginary embedded in an audiovisual discourse of time, this book demonstrates the interrelation of sports cinema and American subjectivization along close readings of the poetics of affect of five exemplary sports films: FIELD OF DREAMS, WE ARE MARSHALL, KNUTE ROCKNE, ALL AMERICAN, JIM THORPE, ALL AMERICAN MIRACLE.

Dramaturgies of Interweaving Erika Fischer-Lichte, Christel Weiler, Torsten Jost, 2021-08-23 Dramaturgies of Interweaving explores present day dramaturgies that interweave performance cultures in the fields of theater, performance dance, and other arts. Merging strategies of audience engagement originating in different cultures, dramaturgies of interweaving are creative methods of theater and art making that seek to address audiences across cultures, making them uniquely suitable for shaping people's experiences of our entangled world. Presenting in depth case studies from across the globe spanning Australia, China, Germany, India, Iran, Japan, Singapore, Taiwan, Vietnam, the US, and the UK, this book investigates how dramaturgies of interweaving are conceived, applied, and received today. Featuring critical analyses by scholars as well as workshop reports and artworks by renowned artists, this book examines dramaturgies of interweaving from multiple locations and perspectives, thus revealing their distinct complexities and immense potential. Ideal for scholars, students, and practitioners of theater, performance, dramaturgy, and devising, Dramaturgies of Interweaving opens up an innovative perspective on today's breathtaking plurality of dramaturgical practices of interweaving in theater, performance dance, and other arts, such as curation and landscape design.

The Politics of Nature and Environmental Writing Rod Giblett, 2025-11-01 This book defines nature writing as the creative practice of tracing the bodily and sensory enjoyment of nature in the broad sense of the processes and places of land, air, and water in prose, poetry, and poetic prose. In so doing, it celebrates the creative practice of selected nature and environmental writing as well as related cultural critique Giblett draws on the work of Gilles Deleuze Felix Guattari and Mikhail Bakhtin to establish what nature writing is and on Michel Foucault to distinguish what it is not He discusses Aboriginal storytelling as well as the work of classic nature writers including Henry David Thoreau Aldo Leopold and John Muir He also considers writing on environmental conservation and politics as well as the new nature writing found in the work of authors such as Richard Mabey Robert Macfarlane Caroline Crampton and Rachel Lichenstein Through all of this contemplation the book invites readers to love their local places plants and animals through creative practice
