

Chicago Manual Citation Style: 16th Ed.

The Chicago Manual of Style provides two documentation systems: the notes and bibliography style (p. 1-3) and the author-date style (p. 4-6). For numerous specific examples, see chapters 14/15 of The Chicago Manual of Style, 16th edition.

NOTES & BIBLIOGRAPHY SYSTEM

The following examples illustrate citations using the notes and bibliography style. Examples of first notes are followed by shortened versions of subsequent citations to the same source. For examples of the same citations using the author-date system, See page 4, below.

BOOK

Reference (hanging indent) for book:

Ward, Geoffrey C., and Ken Burns. The War: An Intimate History of the Second World War, 1941–1945. New York: Knopf, 2007.

First note (indented):

Basic Music Reference Alan Green, Michael J. Duffy, IV, 2012-11-01 Basic Music Reference is a quick start guide designed to introduce library employees to the basic tools and techniques involved in answering questions related to music As in every specialist subject area music has its own terminology but unlike most it also has a multitude of formats on paper and other materials as well as special notation and frequent use of foreign languages in titles and texts These features make it particularly difficult for library employees to answer users questions and thus a guide such as this one is essential Not all libraries with a music collection can afford to hire a music reference librarian Even libraries with such a specialist rely on support staff and student employees to answer questions when the music librarian is not available Whatever the scenario this volume will serve as a helpful training tool for library employees to learn about the basic music reference tools and to develop the techniques of greatest use when answering the most common types of music related questions
