There's a Writer in Our House! Strategies for Supporting and Encouraging Young Writers and Readers at Home Ann P. Kaganoff, 2024-04-11 There's a Writer in Our House is an invitation to parents of children in first grade through fifth grade interested in actively participating in their children's early literacy learning from the very first steps. Founded upon well researched literacy instructional methods that have been informed by the author's clinical perspective as well as her years of experience with many kinds of learners, this book provides a valuable understanding of how both writing and reading contribute to child development in multiple areas. Chapters provide background concepts regarding grammar and specific critical thinking skills in both writing and reading as well as customizable child centered activities used to practice and build writing and reading comprehension skills. You will learn how to advance and encourage your child's learning and communication skills by highlighting important literacy areas such as vocabulary development, background knowledge, and critical thinking. You will also learn to recognize and track the significant developmental achievements of your child as you proceed from the early to the more complex. At Home activities as well as receive strategies for how to respond and give feedback in specific situations such as when a child writes something that makes sense to the child but not to the parent, how to offer feedback that identifies and labels a child's strengths, and how to collaborate effectively with a child who is just developing new interests or a new willingness to try something that previously seemed hard. Practical, accessible, and most importantly, fun, this book is a must read for all parents regardless of background seeking to support their children's ongoing literacy development confidently and effectively. Writing Assessment and Instruction for Students with Learning Disabilities Nancy Mather, Barbara J. Wendling, Rhia Roberts, 2009-10-12 A hands on guide for anyone who teaches writing to students with learning disabilities. This valuable resource helps teachers who want to sharpen their skills in analyzing and teaching writing to students with learning disabilities. The classroom tested, research proven strategies offered in this book work with all struggling students who have difficulties with writing, even those who have not been classified as learning disabled. The book offers a review of basic skills: spelling, punctuation, and capitalization, and includes instructional strategies to help children who struggle with these basics. The authors provide numerous approaches for enhancing student performance in written expression. They explore the most common reasons students are reluctant to write and offer helpful suggestions for motivating them. Includes a much needed guide for teaching and assessing writing skills with children with learning disabilities. Contains strategies for working with all students that struggle with writing. Offers classroom tested strategies, helpful information, 100 writing samples with guidelines for analysis, and handy progress monitoring charts. Includes ideas for motivating reluctant writers. Mather is an expert in the field of learning disabilities and is the best selling author of Essentials of Woodcock Johnson III Tests of Achievement Assessment. Teaching Elementary Language Arts Dorothy Rubin, 2000 Teaching Elementary Language Arts: An Balanced Approach is based on sound research and
