Ethiopian Elites' Political Cultures: a critical juncture Solomon Hailemariam PhD, 2025-05-09 Recurrent ethnic conflicts have been seen in Ethiopia especially during the last three decades since the introduction of a governance structure of ethnic federalism in 1991 Attempts to bring political stability to the country have not been successful as competing political cultures constantly struggle for hegemony Political constituencies have fragmented based on sub national political cultures This book shows the influence of Amhara Oromo and Tigrayan political cultures in Ethiopia and their contribution to the recurrent ethnic conflict in the country The book used the concepts of political culture and neo patrimonialism as analytical tools to understand the differences among and between the educated people from these ethnic groups The findings show that members of each ethnic group are deeply entrenched in their own culture with clear distrust of the political motives of other ethnicities Beyond the disagreements on political history the educated elites accuse each other when it comes to the many challenges faced by the country They accuse each other of state capture corruption inciting ethnic conflicts malpractice poor governance misguided policies divide and rule practices and misappropriation of the nation's economic wealth The elites themselves do not shoulder responsibility for any failure in the country and do not show any interest in understanding other points of view do not show sincere respect for the other's value but claim privileged political positions in present day Ethiopia for past accomplishments A New History of Tanzania N. Muslim Subjectivities in Global Modernity, 2020-03-09 With critical reference to Eisenstadt s theory of multiple modernities Muslim Subjectivities in Global Modernity discusses the role of religion in the modern world The case studies all provide examples illustrating the ambition to understand how Islamic traditions have contributed to the construction of practices and expressions of modern Muslim selfhoods In doing so they underpin Eisenstadt s argument that religious traditions can play a pivotal role in the construction of historically different interpretations of modernity At the same time however they point to a void in Eisenstadt s approach that does not problematize the multiplicity of forms in which this role of religious traditions plays out historically Consequently the authors of the present volume focus on the multiple modernities within Islam which Eisenstadt s theory hardly takes into account Contributors are Philipp Bruckmayr Neslihan Kevser Cevik Dietrich Jung Jakob Kraiss Mex J rgensen Kamaludeen Nasir Zacharias Pieri Mark Sedgwick Kirstine Sinclair Fabio Vicini and Ahmed al Zalaf
