Dac Guidelines Helping Prevent Violent Conflict:

The DAC Guidelines Helping Prevent Violent Conflict Part I: Helping Prevent Violent Conflict: Orientations for External Partners - Part II: Conflict, Peace and Development Co-operation on the Threshold of the 21st Century OECD,2001-11-16 These Guidelines provide ways for donor governments to honour their commitment to conflict prevention as an integral part of the quest to reduce poverty   The DAC Guidelines Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development. Development Assistance Committee,2001 These Guidelines provide ways for donor governments to honour their commitment to conflict prevention as an integral part of the quest to reduce poverty They cover key issues such as security development and dealing with small arms regional co operation peace processes justice and reconciliation engaging in partnerships for peace working with business and grappling with the political economy of war situations where powerful groups acquire a vested interest in sparking or perpetuating violent conflict Back cover

Conflict Prevention Andreas Wenger,Daniel Möckli,2003 Offering a new perspective the authors show how efforts to prevent violent civil wars could be much more effective if they incorporate the business sector   The DAC Guidelines Helping Prevent Violent Conflict Part I: Helping Prevent Violent Conflict: Orientations for External Partners - Part II: Conflict, Peace and Development Co-operation on the Thresho ,   DAC Guidelines and Reference Series Managing Aid Michael Laird,Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development. Development Assistance Committee,2005-06-29 The member countries of OECD s Development Assistance Committee DAC give almost US 70 billion in foreign aid each year This publication examines examples of effective aid management programmes based on a study of the organisational structures and practices of 22 main donor countries Issues discussed include legal frameworks for development co operation how donors organise their operations in partner developing countries comparison of centralised and decentralised management relations with non governmental organisations gender equality environmental sustainability and humanitarian action

Development Co-operation Report 2001 Efforts and Policies of the Members of the Development Assistance Committee OECD,2002-03-18 The 2001 Development Co operation Report highlights the work over the last year of the OECD s Development Assistance Committee on the multiple challenges of creating a world free from exclusion vulnerability and inequality following the events of 9 11   Development Co-operation Report 2007 Manning Richard,2008-02-04 The Development Co operation Report issued by the OECD Development Assistance Committee DAC is the key annual reference document for statistics and analysis on the latest trends in international aid   Development Co-operation Report 2005 Efforts and Policies of the Members of the Development Assistance Committee OECD,2006-02-07 This 2005 edition of OECD s annual report on foreign aid policies and programmes including extensive statistical data on aid flows and analysis of the key issues faced by aid policy makers   The EU's Common Security and Defence Policy Giovanni Faleg,2016-11-01 This book accounts for transformations in the EU s Common Security and Defence Policy CSDP during fifteen years of operations 2001 2016 and argues that the EU evolved into a softer and more civilian security provider rather than a military one This learning process was driven by transnational communities of experts and practitioners which acted as engines of change Giovanni Faleg analyses two innovative concepts introduced in the EU security discourse since the late 1990s security sector reform SSR and civilian crisis management CCM Both stem from a new understanding of security involving the development of non military approaches and a comprehensive approach to crisis management However the implementation of the two policy frameworks by the EU led to very different outcomes The book explains this variation by exploring the pathways by which ideas turn into policies and by comparing the transformational power of epistemic communities and communities of practice p Development Co-operation Report 2004 Efforts and Policies of the Members of the Development Assistance Committee OECD,2005-01-20 This annual report is the key reference document for statistics and analysis on the latest trends in international aid It is of particular importance this year as the world reflects on progress in development five years after the UN Millennium Summit set a series of goals to be reached by 2015 Intergovernmental Organisations and Security Sector Reform David Murray Law,David Law,2007 Intergovernmental organisations IGOs play a crucial role in security sector reform and governance SSR G In virtually all instances of recent and current SSR programme delivery IGOs have either led the SSR effort or supported the lead provided by other actors How this role is played is of vital importance for the prospects of fostering durable security and development in a wide range of countries This volume looks at a selection of organisations that have been in the forefront of SSR activity or that have the potential for significantly developing their SSR agendas in the future These IGOs are the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development OECD the European Union EU the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation NATO the Organisation for Security and Co operation in Europe OSCE the Council of Europe CoE the Economic Organisation of West African States ECOWAS the World Bank WB and the International Monetary Fund IMF This year s volume is divided into four parts conceptual issues case studies on how IGOs have approached SSR in programme areas that are particularly representative of their overall action case studies on the way various actors primarily but not exclusively IGOs have worked with each other in implementing SSR and supporting its implementation and conclusions drawn from the various case studies as well as policy recommendations for future IGO work in the area of SSR G Sustaining Peace In Asean And The Asia-pacific: Preventive Diplomacy Measures Yanjun Guo,I Gusti Agung Wesaka Puja,2022-07-28 In 2016 the United Nations UN General Assembly and the UN Security Council respectively adopted resolutions on the review of the UN peacebuilding architecture and the concept of sustaining peace was formally presented Since then the sustaining peace agenda has gradually become the core strategy of the peace cause of the UN The agenda for sustaining peace emphasizes capacity building for conflict prevention at the regional level Faced with the escalation of the international security challenge regional organizations are increasingly playing a prominent role They have become important participants in the international peace and security agenda by enhancing cooperation with the UN The Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN as the centre of regional cooperation processes in the Asia Pacific established a series of norms and instruments related to conflict prevention This book intends to promote discussions on linking conflict prevention and or preventive diplomacy activities in the region with the sustaining peace agenda promoted by both the ASEAN on a regional scale and the UN on a global scale In a collaboration between the ASEAN Institute for Peace and Reconciliation ASEAN IPR and China Foreign Affairs University CFAU the book provides discussions from the perspective of both Chinese as well as ASEAN scholars on traditional as well as emerging topics on sustaining peace as well as conflict prevention conflict management and conflict resolution   Helping Prevent Violent Conflict ,2001 These Guidelines provide ways for donor governments to honour their commitment to conflict prevention as an integral part of the quest to reduce poverty They cover key issues such as security development and dealing with small arms regional co operation peace processes justice and reconciliation engaging in partnerships for peace working with business and grappling with the political economy of war situations where powerful groups acquire a vested interest in sparking or perpetuating violent conflict They identify concrete opportunities for donor assistance in support of peace that include democratisation inter community relations education and cross cultural training human rights training freedom and access to information the reintegration of uprooted populations the demobilisation of former combatants landmine clearing and the restoration of a capacity for economic management This full set of guidance on conflict prevention to date from the Development Assistance Committee DAC includes the 2001 Supplement and the ground breaking 1997 Guidelines This work marks a reaffirmation of the international community s commitment to work together across government systems to improve their analyses of violent conflicts and establish more coherent policies We are promoting the consideration of conflict prevention in development assistance strategies with a view to achieving quicker and better co ordinated assistance strategies including the Heavily Indebted Poor Countries HPIC initiative and ensuring a smooth transition from relief to post conflict development A significant example of such consideration is the April 2001 OECD DAC Supplement to the 1997 Guidelines on Conflict Peace and Development Co operation Excerpt from the Conclusions of the G 8 Foreign Ministers meeting July 2001   The OECD DAC Handbook on Security System Reform Supporting Security and Justice OECD,2008-02-27 The OECD DAC Handbook on Security System Reform Supporting Security and Justice contains valuable tools to help encourage a dialogue on security and justice issues and to support a security system reform SSR process through the assessment design and implementation phases   The DAC Guidelines Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development,2001 This publication provides policy guidance on good practice in developing and implementing strategies for sustainable development While it focuses on the experience of developing countries many of the issues covered and lessons drawn are of equal relevance to developed countries It draws from international experience over the past two decades in both developed and developing countries as well as from a process of multi stakeholders dialogue in

Bolivia Burkina Faso Ghana Namibia Nepal Pakistan Tanzania and Thailand to assess their experience of country level strategies for sustainable development The DAC Guidelines on Strategies for Sustainable Development aim to provide guidance for development co operation agencies in their efforts to assist developing countries towards sustainable development They should also be of value to policy makers planners and development practitioners as well as to academics students and development analysts in all countries The DAC Journal ,2003 Conflict Prevention and Conflict Management in Northeast Asia Niklas Swanström,2005 Towards a Strategic Framework for Peacebuilding : Getting Their Act Together Dan Smith,2004 OECD Journal on Development ,2008 Refugee Survey Quarterly ,2002
