Elective Home Education Legal Guidelines:

The Review of Elective Home Education Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Children, Schools and Families Committee, 2009 Follows on from the Badman Review HC 610 session 2008 09 ISBN 9780102961133 Support for Home Education Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Education Committee, 2012-12-18 This report supports the right of parents to educate their children at home and accept that home educating families should bear the costs of that provision It is not reasonable however that it should be so difficult to access an exam centre nor that families should pay exam costs on top of everything else Home educators and local authorities LAs have since the Badman Review and its aftermath in 2009 made real efforts to engage and to ensure more constructive relationships and better support but there is clearly some way to go In particular the Committee notes the postcode lottery element of current provision for home educators with different LAs offering starkly different services and patterns of support It calls on the Department for Education to conduct an audit review the home education guidance given to LAs and to support pilots for local offers of support being published The Committee is also concerned that provisions for home educated young people with SEN are not being fully met The Wiley Handbook of Home Education Milton Gaither, 2016-12-12 The Wiley Handbook of Home Education is a comprehensive collection of the latest scholarship in all aspects of home education in the United States and abroad Presents the latest findings on academic achievement of home schooled children issues of socialization and legal argumentation about home schooling and government regulation A truly global perspective on home education this handbook includes the disparate work of scholars outside of the U S Typically understudied topics are addressed such as the emotional lives of home educating mothers and the impact of home education on young adults Writing is accessible to students scholars educators and anyone interested in home schooling issues Transforming Troubled Lives John Visser, Harry Daniels, Ted Cole, Chris Forlin, 2012-04-19 Contains papers and discussions of the third International Conference of SEBDA in 2010 at Keble College Oxford UK This title describes and critically examines strategies and interventions in meeting the educational and well being needs of the children and young people Education, Law and Diversity Neville Harris, 2020-01-09 This new edition of Education Law and Diversity provides extensive updated analysis from a legal perspective of how the education system responds to social diversity and how the relevant social and cultural rights of individuals and groups are affected It spans wide ranging areas of school provision including types of school including faith schools the school curriculum choice of school out of school settings and duties towards children with special needs and disabilities It gives extensive coverage to children s rights in the context of education and includes considerable new material on issues including relationships and sex education exclusion from school home education equal access counter extremism and academisation The new edition also retains and updates areas of debate in the book such as those concerned with multiculturalism and the position of religion in schools It continues to focus on England but also makes reference to other jurisdictions within the UK and internationally It is essential reading for anyone interested in the legal and related policy issues surrounding children's education today
