Food and Aviation in the Twentieth Century Bryce Evans, 2020-12-10 Established by New York stockbroker Juan Trippe in 1927 the story of Pan Am is the story of US led globalisation and imperial expansion in the twentieth century with the airline achieving the vast majority of firsts in aviation history pioneering transoceanic travel and new technologies and all but creating the glitz style and ambience eulogised in Frank Sinatra's Come Fly with Me Bryce Evans investigates an aspect of the airline service that was central to the company's success its food a gourmet glamour underpinned by both serious science and attention to the detail of fine dining culture Modelled on the elite dining experience of the great ocean liners the first transatlantic and transpacific flights featured formal thirteen course dinners served in art deco cabins and served by waiters in white waist length jackets and garrison hats As flight times got faster and altitudes higher Pan Am pioneered the design of hot food galleys and commissioned research into how altitude and pressure affected taste buds amending menus accordingly A tale of collaboration with chefs from the best Parisian restaurants and the wining and dining of politicians and film stars the book also documents what food service was like for flight attendants exploring how the golden age of airline dining was underpinned by a racist and sexist culture Written accessibly and with an eye for the glamour and razzamatazz of public aviation history Bryce Evans research into Pan Am airways will be valuable for scholars of food studies and aviation consumer tourism transport and 20th century American history The Guide to Cooking Schools ShawGuides, Inc, 2000-10 Annual directory containing detailed descriptions of more than 1 000 cooking schools worldwide 417 pages 5 1 2 x 8 1 4 trade paperback The Guide to Cooking Schools ShawGuides, Inc, Dorlene V. Kaplan, 1997-10 Food Network

Best of the Best of Jill Cordes, Marc Silverstein, 2004 Part travelogue part recipe collection part scavenger hunt part confessional Food Network Best of The Best Of takes you behind the scenes to discover why a drugstore in the middle of South Dakota sells three thousand donuts a day which chocolate is so decadent that it will boost your libido or where to find the finest matzo ball soup in Iowa You'll savor the flavors and share in the fun as Jill and Marc recount the trials and triumphs of some of the country's most intriguing restauranteurs and food entrepreneurs Whether it's a Cordon Bleu trained chef amidst the slot machines of Las Vegas or the ranch wife who found success with an eatery in a one horse town this book showcases the breadth and variety of eating in America that is the hallmark of The Best Of Our choices for what we feature on The Best Of show are if nothing else subjective Sure the food has to be good But it's more than just the food Every place has a story And like any good story we look for something unique that distinguishes each place whether it's the setting the characters the history or the lore You may not find the usual top rated five star restaurants here but if you've taken a wrong turn somewhere in the middle of Montana we'll guide you to the best steaks in the state or if you're looking for breakfast amidst the red rocks of Sedona Arizona we know where you can find the widest choice of omelets in the country And even if you don't step outside your front door you can still enjoy the best of everything without a reservation because we've included recipes from many of the chefs we've met during our journeys Travel safe Eat well Book jacket Inside the California Food Revolution Joyce Goldstein, 2013-09-06 In this authoritative and immensely readable insider's account celebrated cookbook author and former chef Joyce Goldstein traces the development of California cuisine from its formative years in the 1970s to 2000 when farm to table foraging and fusion cooking had become part of the national vocabulary Interviews with almost two hundred chefs purveyors artisans winemakers and food writers bring to life an approach to cooking grounded in passion bold innovation and a dedication to flavor first Goldstein explains how the counterculture movement in the West gave rise to a restaurant culture characterized by open kitchens women in leadership positions and a surprising number of chefs and artisanal food producers who lacked formal training The new cuisine challenged the conventional kitchen hierarchy and French dominance in fine dining leading to a more egalitarian and informal food scene In weaving Goldstein's views on California food culture with profiles of those who played a part in its development from Alice Waters to Bill Niman to Wolfgang Puck Inside the California Food Revolution demonstrates that while fresh produce and locally sourced ingredients are iconic in California what transforms these elements into a unique cuisine is a distinctly Western culture of openness creativity and collaboration Engagingly written and full of captivating anecdotes this book shows how the inspirations that emerged in California went on to transform the experience of eating throughout the United States and the world
