

HOW TO PRE-STRUCTURE YOUR NOVEL SO YOU FINISH IT FAST

Using these 9 checkpoints will help you structure your novel so you can finish it fast!

~ Steve Alcorn

1 THE HOOK

The job of the hook is typically just to dump us into the middle of some interesting action.

2 THE BACKSTORY

A lot of the time, this is literally backstory

3 THE TRIGGER

The trigger is the specific event that is really going to throw the character into crisis.

4 THE CRISIS

This crisis is an internal moment.

5 THE STRUGGLE

The character is struggling with whatever the situation is that he or she is there to handle

6 THE EPIPHANY

The epiphany should be a brief internal moment, and in its simplest form, it is simply the fact that the character realizes, "Wow, I have this flaw, and I need to change."

7 THE PLAN

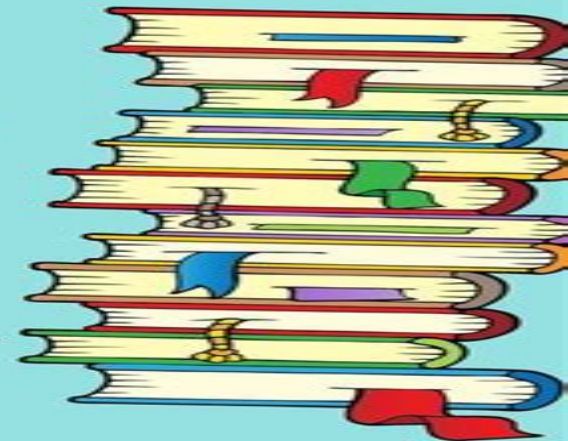

This is where the character finally becomes an active character and starts being able to try to solve his problems

8 THE CLIMAX

It's the most exciting plot point, and it's typically the point where the main character, your protagonist, defeats the main character who is opposing him, or the antagonist.

9 THE ENDING

This is typically a relatively short part of your work because all of the dramatic tension has just, kind of, evaporated now, as a result of everything that has gone on before.
