Balancing Cultural and Corporate Identity Aspects in Standardising and/or Localising Websites Constantin

Meissner, 2006-01-27 Inhaltsangabe Abstract The worldwide economy is currently in a state of upheaval For decades the traditional marketplace was the common way to buy goods services and to do business People set up shops and met in conference rooms to negotiate big business deals However since the middle of the 90 s the business world has been undergoing a tremendous change While the basic rules for doing business have not altered conditions and terms have changed significantly The emergence of the Internet was the main catalyst for this drastic change in the business world At first the Internet was considered to be merely another medium with which people had to deal with It was regarded as a concomitant which did not necessarily have to be used in companies But the possibilities the Internet offered were and are tremendous Both private people and companies discovered the opportunities harboured by the Internet Firms quickly realised that the Internet can and must be a medium which was worth taking a closer look at The same applied for individuals However the very purpose of its work which is communication between private people over the Internet can be overlooked and neglected in this context The first part of the present thesis focuses on the Internet and how companies and individuals use the digital environment to do business The objective of firms is mainly to do business either with other firms or with private people The Internet is considered to be a medium and an interface both parties have to use With the help of the Internet companies are expected to increase their efficiency and reduce transaction costs The unique characteristics of the Internet such as its omnipresence promise both parties an increase in their business activities Furthermore the Internet has to be perceived as a great parallel world to the traditional existing one Of course companies can exclusively exist and compete on the Internet But what they must not neglect is the fact that individuals are people that communicate interact and perform everywhere on the Internet The human aspect is still one of the central factors when looking at the relatively new phenomenon of the Internet Nevertheless this human factor has somehow been neglected by web designers and marketers for several years Companies set up web pages filled them with content and thought that someone might hopefully visit the page and buy a product online Every visitor to a website

Audio Branding Laurence Minsky, Colleen Fahey, 2017-03-03 Audio Branding is a concise practical guide on the influential world of audio branding what it is why it is important and how it can be used to enhance a brand Consider the familiar tune of a branded ringtone the bubbly sounds of Skype and even the chosen sound bite for a branded car unlocking as the driver presses the key How do these choices tie into a wider brand identity Which emotions do they spark and most importantly how do these choices enhance brand association with the consumer Audio Branding delivers fascinating insights into this area of marketing underpinned by practical step by step guidance and cutting edge research to enhance brand loyalty through user experience Written by authors who have contributed directly to the development of this field the book contains an enlightening set of case studies including companies such as Renault a surprisingly emotional audio brand Atlanta Convention Visitors Bureau a warm energetic audio brand and Michelin a globally coherent audio brand Covering issues such as the dominance of audio enabled devices and the phenomenon of continuous partial attention Audio Branding demonstrates how brands can infuse sound into so many different aspects of their identity building in a subtle longevity of brand presence through daily user experience
