Our Turn to Parent Barbara Dunn, Linda Scott, 2009-04-21 No one can anticipate what it will be like for you the day you discover you must become a caregiver for one or both of your parents As you begin to care for them you will be filled with questions and looking for advice Our Turn to Parent shows you how to work with your parent to become their caregiver and their champion and it provides the tools you need to make decisions and feel confident that you are doing right by your aging parents. With stories from real lives it also offers honest and personal anecdotes about surviving these trying times. Our Turn to Parent is the best and most thorough caregivers guide available in Canada today. Our Turn to Parent offers practical advice on deciding when you need to step in and help developing the caregiver relationship with your parents, discussing with the family your parents' hopes and plans for the future, adapting the home so that it is safe and comfortable for their evolving needs, finding appropriate care and help in your community, choosing the right place for your parent to live, should independent living no longer be possible, navigating the medical system, organizing your parents' finances before they become incapacitated, making clear your parents' personal care and end of life wishes, caring for yourself. I have found the last few years to be the most challenging in my life and the most fulfilling. I have laughed with my mother and cried with my mother but most of all I have been there for her as she was for me as I was growing up.

A Caregiver's Story     The Nonprofit Sector in Canada Queen's University (Kingston, Ont.). School of Policy Studies, 2000. Governments see not for profit agencies as an alternative mechanism for delivering public services. Activists see voluntary organizations as instruments of change. Analysts see community organizations as sources of trust and social cohesion. Despite these heady expectations we know remarkably little about the not for profit sector in Canada. In this book a group of scholars respond to the need for basic research in this field, exploring the scope of the not for profit sector, the diverse roles that such organizations play and their relationships with other sectors.     Canadiana, 1991     National Union Catalog, 1978.
