Care at the End of the World Jina B. Kim, 2025-03-21 In Care at the End of the World Jina B Kim develops what she calls cripp of color critique bringing a disability lens to bear on feminist and queer of color literature in the aftermath of 1996 US welfare reform and the subsequent evisceration of social safety nets She examines literature by contemporary feminist queer and disabled writers of color such as Jesmyn Ward Octavia Butler Karen Tei Yamashita Samuel Delany and Aurora Levins Morales who each bring disability and dependency to the forefront of their literary freedom dreaming Kim shows that in their writing liberation does not take the shape of the unfettered individual or hinge on achieving independence Instead liberation emerges by recuperating dependency cultivating radical interdependency and recognizing the numerous support systems upon which survival depends At the same time Kim demonstrates how theories and narratives of disability can intervene into state authored myths of resource parasitism such as the welfare queen In so doing she highlights the alternate structures of care these writers envision and their dreams of life organized around reciprocity and mutual support Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award Streetwalking Ana-Maurine Lara,2020-12-18 In Streetwalking LGBTQ Lives and Protest in the Dominican Republic Lara draws on ethnographic encounters interviews films and videos to discuss the specific strategies employed by LGBTQ community leaders in the Dominican Republic in the exercise of streetwalker subjectivities as those who actively transform silence verbal bodily spiritual into power First Communion Blessing Flowerfield Journal,2019-07-20 Unique notebook journal for first communion celebration Features Size 6x9 Beautiful cover image Church Economist ,1902 The Christian Writers Market Guide 1999 Sally E.
