ON THE ROAD AGAIN,
metaphorically
speaking

Thinking is not the best thing that you can do.
You should think about
the things that are important to you. The things that are important to you are the things that are important to you.

The American Society of Human Genetics (ASHG) has announced that it will be releasing a report on the ethical, legal, and social issues surrounding the use of genetic information in the workplace. The report, which is being released in conjunction with the ASHG's 20th anniversary, is the result of a series of workshops and public hearings held over the past several years. The report is expected to be released in the next few months.

STAYING ON TOP The U.S. Coast Guard's 10th anniversary of the 1996 Maritime Security Act is being celebrated with a special issue of the Maritime Security magazine. The magazine is published by the Coast Guard's Maritime Security Division, which is responsible for the Coast Guard's maritime security operations. The magazine is a quarterly publication that provides information on maritime security issues, including the latest in maritime security technology, the latest in maritime security policy, and the latest in maritime security operations. The magazine is a valuable resource for anyone interested in maritime security.
