A People's Guide to Greater Boston Joseph Nevins,Suren Moodliar,Eleni Macrakis,2020 Herein we bring you to sites that have been central to the lives of the people of Greater Boston over four centuries You ll visit sites associated with the area s indigenous inhabitants and with the individuals and movements who sought to abolish slavery to end war challenge militarism and bring about a more peaceful world to achieve racial equity gender justice and sexual liberation and to secure the rights of workers We take you to some well known sites but more often to ones far off the well beaten path of the Freedom Trail to places in Boston s outlying neighborhoods We also visit sites in numerous other municipalities that make up the Greater Boston region from places such as Lawrence Lowell and Lynn to Concord and Plymouth The sites to which we do travel include homes given that people s struggles activism and organizing sometimes unfold or are even birthed in many cases in living rooms and kitchens Trying to capture a place as diverse and dynamic as Boston is highly challenging One could say that about any big place We thus want to make clear that our goal is not to be comprehensive or to do justice to the region Given the constraints of space and time as well as the limitations of knowledge both our own and what is available in published form there are many important sites cities and towns that we have not included Thus in exploring scores of sites across Boston and numerous municipalities our modest goal is to paint a suggestive portrait of the greater urban area that highlights its long contested nature In many ways we merely scratch the region s surface or many surfaces given the multiple layers that any one place embodies In writing about Greater Boston as a place we run the risk of suggesting that the city writ large has some sort of essence Indeed the very notion of a particular place assumes intrinsic characteristics and an associated delimited space After all how can one distinguish one place from another if it has no uniqueness and is not geographically differentiated Nonetheless geographer Doreen Massey insists that we conceive of places as progressive as flowing over the boundaries of any particular space time or society in other words we should see places as processual or ever changing as unbounded in that they shape and are shaped by other places and forces from without and as having multiple identities In exploring Greater Boston from many venues over 400 years we embrace this approach That said we have to reconcile this with the need to delimit Greater Boston for among other reasons simply to be in a position to name it and thus distinguish it from elsewhere Let's Go Boston 4th Edition Let's Go Inc.,2003-12 The Resource for the Independent Traveler For over forty years Let s Go Travel Guides have brought budget savvy travelers closer to the world and its diverse cultures by providing the most up to date information Includes Entries at all price levels for lodging food attractions and more Must have advice for planning your trip getting around and staying safe The best bars pubs clubs and festivals A detailed look at Boston s historical trails with tips from a volunteer ranger Expanded coverage of Cape Cod and the Islands Detailed neighborhood maps walking tours and photos throughout Featuring not to be missed Experiences Cultural Connections Revisit the Pilgrim days at Plimoth Plantation Inside Scoops Hidden Deals Devour vast amounts of ice cream at the Jimmy Fund s Scooperbowl Off the Beaten Path Uncover the city s best Latin food in eclectic Jamaica Plain Get advice read up and book tickets at www.letsgo.com
