In the foreground, several men in 19th-century attire are visible, some standing and others seated. A group of women in long, colorful dresses stands to the right. The middle ground is filled with numerous flags of various nations, including the United States, France, and others, flying from tall poles. In the background, a large, ornate building, possibly a government or palace, is partially visible through the trees. The overall scene is set outdoors with lush greenery and a body of water in the lower right corner.
