Life and Moral Education in Greater China John Chi-Kin Lee, Stephen Yam-wing Yip, Raymond Ho-Man Kong, 2021-03-29 Arguing for life moral and values education as a bedrock for the original goals of school education this monograph explores how life and values education is conceptualised and imparted in Greater China Under a globalized transnational and technological world where there has been an increase in people's mobility in information and cultural exchanges there is also a growing emphasis on personal and professional ethics Against this context life moral and values education has gained attention for its impact on shaping students' characters as future citizens However the cultivation of these values is made deeply diversified and complex by varying interpretations of life education and values education across societies given that different societies are influenced by different socio-cultural traditions educational ideologies and religious beliefs The means and approaches towards life education also vary vastly from formal school subjects school-based programmes as well as teachers and peers' role modelling community services extra-curricular activities school discipline charity work pastoral care and school ethos Recognising this inherent diversity and complexity in the approach to and the dissemination of life education the contributors to this volume survey the practice of life education in Greater China so far suggesting that life education is most effective when it is diversified dynamic and developmental across contexts This book will provide the opportunity for engaging in important and serious debates about the future and the values that will underpin it and will prove of special interest to scholars and practitioners working on education policies curriculum development and teacher education in Greater China

National Education in Hong Kong in the New Era Jason Cong Lin, 2025-04-17 This book provides a comprehensive up to date picture of national education in Hong Kong At the societal level it offers an in depth understanding of a divisive issue for Hongkongers elaborating the official approach so that diverse stakeholders have a basis for re evaluating the nature and implementation of national education for rational and critical dialogue At the policy and curricular level it offers evidence based suggestions to foster inclusive and reflective decision making and curriculum development related to national education At a practical level it facilitates the teaching of national education in schools and helps diverse stakeholders to reflect on how national education relates to them and what they can do to co construct an inclusive and reflective national education The book will interest researchers in multicultural education national identity identity politics and China and Hong Kong Studies
