Claiming Victory A Romantic Comedy The Dartmouth Diaries 1:

Claiming Victory Beverley Watts, 2015-04-13 Claiming Victory is a funny contemporary romantic comedy that will appeal to every woman who still believes fairy tales can come true So let me get this straight Admiral Your plan is to somehow get the most famous actor in the world to fall in love with your daughter Victory who we both love dearly but and please don't take offence Sir who you yourself admit is built generously across the aft and whose face is unlikely to launch the Dartmouth ferry let alone a thousand ships Victory Shackleford is a spinster or at least well on the way to becoming one She is thirty two years old still lives with her father an eccentric retired Admiral and the love of her life is a dog She thinks her father is reckless irresponsible and totally incapable of looking after himself He thinks his daughter is a boring nagging harpy with no imagination or sense of adventure and what's more he's determined to get her married off Unfortunately there's no one in the picturesque yachting town of Dartmouth that Tory is remotely interested in despite her father's best efforts But all that is about to change when she discovers that her madcap father has rented out their house as a location shoot for the biggest blockbuster of the year As cast and crew descend Tory's humdrum orderly existence is turned completely upside down especially as the lead actor has just been voted the sexiest man on the planet Full of romantic humor Claiming Victory is a must for fans of funny love stories especially quirky British Romantic comedies John Bull, 1844
