Concept of Individuality Jeffery Fox,2014-12-24 Get enlightened on the ways you can inspire Geveryone and find out how you can stay inspired all your life Be the Pole Star to guide others The Cognitive, Emotional and Neural Correlates of Creativity Matthijs Baas,Carsten K. W. De Dreu,Bernard A. Nijstad,2015-08-06 Across species humans have an unsurpassed capacity for creative thought and innovation Human creativity is at the roots of extraordinary achievements in the arts and sciences and enables individuals and their groups to adapt flexibly to changing circumstances to manage complex social relations and to survive and prosper through social technological and medical innovations The ability to generate novel and potentially useful ideas and problem solutions viz creativity is a key driver of human evolution and among the most valued and sought after competencies in contemporary societies that struggle with complex problems and compete for technological and economic supremacy Because creativity provides fitness functionality in both ancestral and contemporary societies it stands to reason that i the human brain evolved to sustain and promote creative thinking and we should be able to identify ii the brain circuitries genetic drivers and neurohormonal modulators of the human capacity for creative problem solving and original ideation and iii the core cognitive and emotional processes underlying creative thought In this Research Topic we bring together a collection of papers to provide an encyclopedic open access snapshot of the current state of the art on the neural cognitive and emotional correlates of creativity The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art ,1857 Eclectic Magazine, and Monthly Edition of the Living Age John Holmes Agnew,Walter Hilliard Bidwell,1857 The Evangelical repository. Vol. 1- new ,1877 The Eclectic Magazine John Holmes Agnew,Walter Hilliard Bidwell,1857 A Commentary on the Holy Scriptures: Genesis Johann Peter Lange,1899 The British Quarterly Review ,1857 Deathworlds to Lifeworlds Valerie Malhotra Bentz,James Marlatt,2021-08-02 Deathworlds are places on planet earth that can no longer sustain life These are increasing rapidly We experience remnants of Deathworlds within our Lifeworlds for example traumatic echoes of war genocide oppression Many practices and policies directly or indirectly are Deathworld Making They undermine Lifeworlds contributing to community decline illnesses climate change and species extinction This book highlights the ways in which writing about and sharing meaningful experiences may lead to social and environmental justice practices decreasing Deathworld Making Phenomenology is a method which reveals the connection between personal suffering and the suffering of the planet earth and all its creatures Sharing can lead to collaborative relationships among strangers for social and environmental justice across barriers of culture politics and language Deathworlds into Lifeworlds wakes people up to how current economic and social forces are destroying life and communities on our planet as I have mapped in my work The chapters by scholars around the world in this powerful book testify to the pervasive consequences of the proliferation of Deathworld making and ways that collaboration across cultures can help move us forward Saskia Sassen is the Robert S Lynd Professor of Sociology at Columbia University and a Member of its Committee on Global Thought Recognizing the inseparability of experience consciousness environment and problematics in rebalancing life systems this book offers solutions from around the world Four Arrows aka Don Trent Jacobs author of Sitting Bull's Words for A World in Crises et al This unique book brings together 78 participants from 11 countries to reveal the ways in which phenomenology the study of consciousness and phenomena can lead to profound personal and social transformation Such transformation is especially powerful when Deathworlds physical or cultural places that no longer sustain life are transformed into lifeworlds through collaborative sharing even when or perhaps especially when the sharing is among strangers across different cultures The contributors share a truly wide range of human experiences from the death of a child to ecological destruction in offering ways to affirm life in the face of what may seem to be hopeless death affirming challenges Richard P Appelbaum Ph D is Distinguished Research Professor Emeritus and former MacArthur Foundation Chair in Global and International Studies and Sociology at the University of California Santa Barbara He is also a founding Professor at Fielding Graduate University where he heads the doctoral concentration in Sustainability Leadership

Deathworlds is a love letter for the planet our home By documenting places that no longer sustain life the authors collectively pull back the curtain on these places rendering them meaningful by connecting what ails us with what ails the world Katrina S Rogers Ph D conservation activist and author Deathworlds to Lifeworlds represents collaboration among Fielding Graduate University the University of od Poland and the University of the Virgin Islands Students and faculty from these universities participated in seminars on transformative phenomenology and developed rich phenomenologically based narratives of their experiences or others These phenomenological protocol narratives creatively modify and integrate with everyday experience the conceptual frameworks of Husserl Schutz Heidegger Habermas and others The diverse protocol authors demonstrate how phenomenological reflection is transformative first by revealing how Deathworlds which lead to physical mental social or ecological decline imperil invaluable lifeworlds Deathworlds appear on lifeworld fringes such as extra urban trash landfills where unnoticed impoverished workers labor to the destruction of their own health Poignant protocol narratives highlight the plight and noble struggle of homeless people the mother of a dying 19 year old son persons inclined to suicide overwhelmed first responders alcoholics who through inspiration achieve sobriety unravelled We Relationships those suffering from and overcoming addiction or misogynist stereotypes or excessive pressures veterans distraught after combat a military mother those in liminal situations and oppressed indigenous peoples who still make available their liberating spirituality Transformative phenomenology exemplifies that generous responsiveness to the ethical summons to solidarity to which Levinas's Other invites us Michael Barber Ph D Professor of Philosophy St Louis University He has authored seven books and more than 80 articles in the general area of phenomenology and the social world He is editor of Sch tzian Research an annual interdisciplinary journal This book helps us notice the Deathworlds that surround us and advocates for their de naturalization Its central claim is that the ten virtues of the transformative phenomenologist allow us to do so by
