City Guide Paris 2013 Fide:

Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events

To Stir a Restless Heart Jacob W. Wood, 2019 To Stir a Restless Heart tells for the first time the story of how Thomas Aquinas conversed with his contemporaries about the dynamics of human nature's longing for God and documents how he deliberately utilized Greek Arabic Hebrew and Latin sources to develop a version of Aristotelian natural desire that was uniquely Augustinian natural desire seeks the complete fulfillment of human nature insofar as is possible and so comes to rest in the highest end that God offers to it Depending on whether God offers the free gift of grace to humanity one and the same natural desire can come to rest in knowing God through creatures or seeing God directly

Trustworthy Men Ian Forrest, 2020-03-31 The medieval church was founded on and governed by concepts of faith and trust but not in the way that is popularly assumed Offering a radical new interpretation of the institutional church and its social consequences in England Ian Forrest argues that between 1200 and 1500 the ability of bishops to govern depended on the cooperation of local people known as trustworthy men and shows how the combination of inequality and faith helped make the medieval church Trustworthy men in Latin virī fidei digni were jurors informants and witnesses who represented their parishes when bishops needed local knowledge or reliable collaborators Their importance in church courts at inquests and during visitations grew enormously between the thirteenth and fifteenth centuries The church had to trust these men and this trust rested on the complex and deep rooted cultures of faith that underpinned promises and obligations personal reputation and identity and belief in God But trust also had a dark side For the church to discriminate between the trustworthy and untrustworthy was not to identify the most honest Christians but to find people whose status ensured their word would not be contradicted This meant men rather than women and usually the wealthier tenants and property holders in each parish Trustworthy Men illustrates the ways in which the English church relied on and deepened inequalities within late medieval society and how trust and faith were manipulated for political ends

Missionary Spaces Thomas Coomans, 2024-05-02 The spatial turn of missionary places Situated at the crossroads of missionary history imperial history and colonial architecture this volume examines the architectural staging and spatial implications of the worldwide expansion of Christianity in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries By focusing on specific architectural fragments analysing the intersection of Christian edifices in colonial and traditional urban settings or unravelling the social understanding of missionary places each chapter strives to understand the agency of missionary spaces Bringing together scholars from different disciplines and fields this book aims to centre those missionary spaces by approaching them not merely as a cor around and within which the missionary encounter was acted but by making them part and parcel of it Through its approach Missionary Spaces provides a new paradigm for scrutinising the spatial turn for missionary histories and contributes to the increased attention across the humanities to space place and location since the late 1990s Space does not occur as an historical given but as a social construction to be analysed while at the same time having explanatory value of its own This book focuses on Africa and the Chinese Region with contributions on Burundi China Congo Egypt Ghana Kenya and Taiwan Arabic Dialogues Rachel Mairs,2024-03-04 During the nineteenth century and into the early twentieth century more Europeans visited the Middle East than ever before as tourists archaeologists pilgrims settler colonists and soldiers These visitors engaged with the Arabic language to differing degrees While some were serious scholars of Classical Arabic in the Orientalist mould many did not learn the language at all Between these two extremes lies a neglected group of language learners who wanted to learn enough everyday colloquial Arabic to get by The needs of these learners were met by popular language books which boasted that they could provide an easy route to fluency in a difficult language Arabic Dialogues explores the motivations of Arabic learners and effectiveness of instructional materials principally in Egypt and Palestine by analysing a corpus of Arabic phrasebooks published in nine languages English French German Spanish Portuguese Italian Yiddish Hebrew Russian and in the territory of twenty five modern countries Beginning with Napoleon s Exp dition d gypte 1798 1801 it moves through the periods of mass tourism and European colonialism in the Middle East concluding with the Second World War The book also considers how Arab intellectuals understood the project of teaching Arabic to foreigners the remarkable history of Arabic learning among Yiddish and Hebrew speaking immigrants in Palestine and the networks of language learners teachers and plagiarists who produced these phrasebooks Church, Society and University Deborah Grice,2019-08-06 In 1241 4 the theology masters at the university at Paris with their chancellor Odo of Chateauroux mandated by their bishop William of Auvergne met to condemn ten propositions against theological truth This book represents the first comprehensive examination of what hitherto has been a largely ignored instrument in a crucial period of the university s early maturation However the book s ambition goes wider than this The condemnation provides a window through which to view the wider doctrinal intellectual institutional and historical developments within the emerging university These include the advent of the Dominicans and Franciscans at the university and the developing focus of Paris theologians on using their learning for preaching at a time of a rapid and sometimes divergent development of doctrine and concerns over the newly translated Aristotelian and associated Arab and Jewish works heresy the Greek Church and the Jews The book compares the condemnation s ten articles with the major statement of Catholic principles in the first canon of the Fourth Lateran Council 1215 and assesses what conclusions can be drawn from their apparent correlation Its examination of the condemnation in the context of the surrounding wider developments provides the basis for a much better understanding of the university and its theology faculty in the formative years between the grant of its statutes in 1215 and the better known period from the 1250s onwards which included major figures such as Thomas Aquinas and this in turn should lead to a better understanding of the later period itself and its doctrinal and institutional developments Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Library,1965 Subject Index
