The Routledge International Handbook of Life and Values Education in Asia John Chi-Kin Lee, Kerry J Kennedy, 2024-06-28 This Handbook provides a comprehensive look at the educational scope of life and values that characterize 21st century Asia as well as those values shared across cultures Some values are deeply resonant with the region's past while others reflect modernity and the new contexts in which Asian societies find themselves Exploring these values of different types and the way they are constructed in Eastern and Western contexts the contributors delve into the diversity of religious moral and social education to promote greater understanding across cultures While a range of values is identified here there is no single set of values that can be applied to all people in all contexts The time has long gone even for single societies when values can be imposed Yet this Handbook emphasizes both the extent and importance of values to individuals and their societies how they respond to these values may provide the key to better and more caring societies and to better lives for all Academics and teachers will find this Handbook resourceful because it raises important theoretical issues related to social values and their formation in distinctive contexts and provides novel insights into the diverse educational landscape in Asia Policymakers and educators will also find this text helpful in learning to think about new ways to improve the quality of people's lives

Crime Prevention John A. Winterdyk, 2017-01-20 This text presents an international approach to the study of crime prevention It offers an expansive overview of crime prevention initiatives and how they are applied across a wide range of themes and infractions from conventional to non conventional forms of crime Based on a review of the literature this is the first text to offer a broad yet comprehensive examination of how and why crime prevention has gained considerable traction as an alternative to conventional criminal justice practices of crime control in developed countries and to provide a cross sectional view of how crime prevention has been applied and how effective such initiatives have been Crime Prevention International Perspectives Issues and Trends is suitable for undergraduate students in criminology and criminal justice programs as well as for graduates and undergraduates in special topics courses

Policies and Practices for Sustainability Transformation in Higher Education Institutions Vasiliki Kioupi, Rosario Michel-Villarreal, Felister Nzuve, Naoya Abe, George

Giannopoulos, 2025-08-07 Calls for transforming higher education toward sustainability by academics are not new Recently

students both current and prospective have actively voiced their demands for this change. They seek an education that equips them to navigate the complexities of sustainability and climate change, fostering knowledge and skills for action. In response, higher education institutions (HEIs) are formulating strategies to align their mission with sustainability goals. However, the effectiveness of these strategies along with the underlying policies and practices remains insufficiently studied. To address this gap, it is crucial to convene academics, professional staff, and students for discussions on necessary cultural shifts, a roadmap, and ways to monitor and evaluate this change. Such dialogues will lead to improved decision making for transformation to achieve sustainability. Students will not only learn about sustainability in their courses but also apply them to their lives within and beyond universities that champion holistic sustainability transformation.

The Faro Convention's role in a changing society Francesc Pla, Jovana Poznan, 2022-01-05. Council of Europe action in the field of cultural heritage targets promoting diversity and dialogue through access to heritage to foster a sense of identity, collective memory, and mutual understanding within and between communities. The year 2021 marks the 10th anniversary of the entry into force of the Framework Convention on the Value of Cultural Heritage for Society, also known as the Faro Convention. The present publication shows that what emerged back in 2005 as a truly innovative approach is still relevant today and can also have an impact on issues beyond its traditional realm. This is illustrated through a set of articles that demonstrate the pertinence of the Faro Convention's approach to cultural heritage in addressing different aspects ranging from democratic participation to tourism rethinking. The wide range of topics addressed and the numerous possibilities described by the various contributors suggest that the next ten years of the Faro Convention will be as challenging and rewarding as the decade that has elapsed since its entry into force.

Teaching and Learning for Comprehensive Citizenship Candice Carter, 2020-11-16

Ultimately concerned with how citizenship education for peace can be enriched through interdisciplinary learning, this edited volume reveals the role of peace education in global citizenship by illuminating instruction for comprehensive citizenship. A truly international collection, this volume offers timely insights from countries including Argentina, Mexico, Spain, Canada, Bangladesh, Korea, Zimbabwe, and Timor-Leste, as it provides critical in-depth analyses of peace-oriented instruction in formal and informal settings. The text illustrates how citizenship can be effectively developed on both a global and a local level and discusses the practical learning opportunities that can enact change through schools, nongovernmental organizations, and community-wide civic actions with children, youth, adults, and families. This text will appeal to academics and researchers involved in the field of international and comparative education and will be of interest to educators and school leaders concerned with the role citizenship plays in the context of teaching and learning.
