Civic Education in the Elementary Grades Dana Mitra, Stephanie C. Serriere, 2015 As former elementary school teachers the authors focus on what is possible in schools rather than a romantic vision of what schools could be Based on a 5 year study of an elementary school this book shows how civic engagement can be purposive and critical a way to encourage young people to examine their environment to notice and question injustices and to take action to make a difference in their communities and school Focusing on the intersection of student voice and critical inquiry the book describes how to embed civic engagement into curriculum school decision making processes and whole school activities Chapters provide an overview of what research has demonstrated about civic engagement at the classroom school and community levels including detailed descriptions of activities and lessons for practice Classroom teachers school principals community members and teacher educators can use this resource to foster a deeper richer understanding of what is entailed in civic life Book Features A vivid portrait of a typical public school that wants to do more than teach to the test An examination of the conditions that enable young people to participate in democratic practices including identifying and questioning injustices Concrete examples of student voice and critical inquiry in classroom contexts Practices and activities that encourage children to get along with others exchange perspectives and work across differences Offers a suggestive range of evidence that high quality civic engagement initiatives can enhance students academic social and emotional engagement It reveals the nitty gritty of how experienced teachers can enable children who are immersed in meaningful civic work also to engage more deeply with mathematical problem solving peer collaboration literacy and social studies learning and development of empathy and mutual trust From the Foreword by Meira Levinson Mitra and Serriere show us not only that elementary aged children are capable of civic engagement but how such engagement can be nurtured in the classroom Children can be active civic participants this book demonstrates both the power of this idea and how we might accomplish this essential task Beth C Rubin Rutgers University

As Arthur William Dunn, 2015-07-08 Excerpt from Civic Education in Elementary Schools As Illustrated in Indianapolis Sir From the inception of the tax supported public school systems in the United States one of their most important functions has been to give the instruction and training necessary for the intelligent performance of the duties of citizenship Indeed this work of preparation for citizenship has been and is still one of the strongest arguments for making education a function of the State and in justification of the levying of taxes for the support of schools As the government and industrial and social life become more democratic the importance of this function of the schools becomes more evident and necessary and the means of giving the necessary instruction and training becomes keener and more general For several years the public schools of the city of Indianapolis have had a reputation for unusually good work in this direction Since example adds much to the effectiveness of theory and may be even more useful in results I requested Mr Arthur W Dunn the bureau s specialist in civic education to make a careful study of this work in these schools for the purpose of making a concise report of its more important features This Mr Dunn was the better able to do because of the fact that he was at one time connected with the schools of Indianapolis as director of instruction and training in civics The manuscript transmitted herewith is the result of this study I recommend that it be published as a bulletin of the Bureau of Education Respectfully submitted About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Civic Education in Elementary Schools As Illustrated in Indianapolis Arthur William Dunn, 2012-08-01 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad

Perceptions of Implementation of Civic Education Curriculum in a Suburban School District Sheena Rachel Jacob, 2020 The purpose of this qualitative research study was to explore and develop an understanding of teachers and coordinator perceptions of a civic education and to analyze how the program was implemented in a suburban school district This qualitative case study explored the experiences of one school district s civic education program and was informed by interviews observations and documents The researcher interviewed a K 12 social studies coordinator and two teachers The researcher also observed four civic education classes within the school district Finally the researcher analyzed documents that comprised the syllabus for the 12th grade Civic courses student work from 12th grade Civics courses and activities and lessons from 5th grade classes The specific research questions were 1 What are the perceptions of the implementation of a civic education program for the K 12 social studies curriculum in a suburban school district and 2 How is the civic education program in K 12 social studies implemented The study conclusions identified the following themes civic engagement which incorporates student activities within allotted instruction time and outside of school time that promotes students active participation and collaboration with local and school officials on issues concerning students and community civic identity and commitment which involves implementing a program where all stakeholders building and central administrators teachers community members are all committed and supportive civic knowledge which involves the ability to understand what civics means and to implement the curriculum within the time allotted for the subject social studies to be taught and civic contexts structures which involves having students demonstrate the ability and commitment to collaboratively work across and within community contexts and structures to achieve a civic goal From the study s conclusions it is evident that the allocation of appropriate and sufficient resources in addition to district and community support is essential to ensure that civic education is successfully implemented in K 12 schools Future research can add to these findings by exploring how districts can implement a K 12 civic education curriculum for all students including analyzing short and long term effects of implementing such a program at the local state and national levels A Guide to Readings in Civic Education Olive Thompson,1922 Civics Education in Contentious Times William Toledo,2020-11-05 Civics Education in Contentious Times Working with Teachers to Create Locally Specific Curricula in a Post Truth World is a longitudinal research study that focuses on the collaboration between a researcher and elementary teachers to design and implement locally specific civics curriculum in a predominately Latinx serving Title I school William Toledo details how the design team wrote and taught this curricular unit in the midst of contentious socio political contexts and how themes from these greater contexts entered classrooms along with proposing conceptual frameworks for teaching civic perspective taking in these instances We the People Joan Carroll-Flowers,2024-01-20 This hands on workbook supports adults to facilitate a proven youth centered program designed to increase community leadership and responsible citizenship Developed by a curriculum specialist the workbook includes professional development for effective program planning and implementation It offers a a roadmap to effectively deliver curriculum lesson plans and coach participants through a variety of learning experiences The workbook is also meant to inspire youth with ready to use projects that engage them with their community and authentic problem solving activities Whether it s used as a six week summer enrichment program or for 12 months of project learning We The People A Community Engagement and Civic Enrichment Program can meet the needs of a school church youth group juvenile justice agency or a nonprofit organization A Practical Guide for Integrating Civic Responsibility Into the Curriculum Karla Gottlieb,Gail Robinson,2006-06-30 From Preface This curriculum guide evolved from a national service learning project of the AACC Recognizing that an intentional civic responsibility component was missing from many service learning initiatives AACC selected six colleges from around the country to participate in a pilot project whose purpose was to identify service learning strategies to boost civic engagement and foster civic responsibility among community college students Lessons in Civics for the Three Primary Grades of City Schools (Classic Reprint) Hannah Margaret Harris,2015-07-12 Excerpt from Lessons in Civics for the Three Primary Grades of City Schools Children s experience the basis of instruction Instruction in civics must be based on the children s experiences and should result not only in giving clearer and fuller information but also in creating the mental attitudes and habitual acts that characterize good citizenship at the given age It is to small purpose for instance that a child learns of the organization and work of the Street Cleaning Department if at the same time he continues to be careless about throwing banana skins around Materials that have place in an elementary civics course In planning a course in civics for young children there is a temptation to overload it with facts which will be forgotten before they are ever used We have repeatedly to remind ourselves that any material which has a legitimate place in the course holds that place because it is related to some civic situation in which a child is normally to be found and his reaction to which is capable of being modified by a civics lesson Of this sort of material there is no lack The children of our city schools have many experiences of civic significance upon which instruction can be based and there are many opportunities for instruction to be immediately applied greatly to the advantage of themselves of the city and of the nation For example all city children even the youngest in school have had their interest and curiosity aroused by the sight of a burning building and of a fire engine and crew dashing to the rescue Here is an experience which can be so interpreted and enlarged upon that children still too young for the study of municipal organization may be led to refrain from playing with fire and to regard firemen as heroes to be obeyed and to be emulated in coolness and courage If these effects are produced upon the habits of thought and action of a large number of small children who can doubt that the result will be not only a considerable safe guard to these individual children but also an actual decrease in fire loss and in the long run an appreciable gain to the resources of the nation in property and lives About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Becoming Active Citizens Tom Driscoll, Shawn W.
