Civics Semester Exam Review:

Reimagining Civic Education Doyle Stevick, 2007 This volume surveys the new global landscape for democratic civic education Rooted in qualitative research the contributors explore the many ways that notions of democracy and citizenship have been implemented in recent education policy curriculum and classroom practice around the world From Indonesia to the Spokane Reservation and El Salvador to Estonia these chapters reveal a striking diversity of approaches to political socialization in varying cultural and institutional contexts By bringing to bear the methodological conceptual and theoretical perspectives of qualitative research this book adds important new voices to one of education's most critical debates how to form democratic citizens in a changing world

Public Administration's Final Exam Michael M. Harmon, 2006-11-12 Examines why public administration's literature has failed to justify the profession's legitimacy as an instrument of governance Michael Harmon employs the literary conceit of a Final Exam first written in the early 1930s in a critique of the field's answers to the legitimacy question Because the assumptions that underwrite the question preclude the possibility of a coherent answer the exam should be canceled and its question rewritten Envisaging a public administration no longer hostage to the legitimacy question Harmon explains how the study and practice of public administration might proceed from adolescence to maturity Drawing chiefly from pragmatist philosophy he argues that despite the universal rejection of the politics-administration dichotomy on factual grounds the pseudo problem of legitimacy nonetheless persists in the guise of four related conceptual dualisms 1 values and facts 2 thinking and doing 3 ends and means and 4 theory and practice Collectively these dualisms demand an impossible answer to the practical question of how we might live and govern together in a world of radical uncertainty and interdependence Only by dissolving them can the legitimacy question Woodrow Wilson's ghost finally be banished clearing away the theoretical debris that obscures a more vital and useful conception of governance

Public Administration, Civic Engagement, and Spanish-Speaking Communities José Luis Irizarry, 2025-10-27 Public Administration Civic Engagement and Spanish Speaking Communities builds on the first bilingual Spanish-English special session at the National Academy of Public Administration's 2022 Social Equity Leadership Conference

Experiencing Citizenship Richard M. Battistoni, William E. Hudson, 2023-07-03 This practical guide is intended for faculty and service learning directors combining the how-to information and rigorous intellectual framework that teachers seek What distinguishes this volume is that the contributors are writing for their peers They discuss how service learning can be implemented within political science and what this discipline contributes to the pedagogy of service learning The book offers both theoretical background and practical pedagogical chapters which describe the design implementation and outcomes of political science service learning programs as well as annotated bibliographies program descriptions and course syllabi

The ... Mental Measurements Yearbook Oscar Krisen Buros, 1978 Teaching and Learning on the Verge Shanti Elliott, 2015-06-29 Our changing world demands that all students become agile thinkers who can grow sturdy interpersonal and civic relationships This book proposes that teachers who think of learning as playing with power tap the creative and subversive energies of young people making academic work far more consequential than a piece of paper with a grade on it Young people must learn to play democracy just as they might play a violin or a sport not as a game of let's pretend but fully participating in the language spaces and possibilities of public life Based on 20 years of teaching experience and research in schools across the US Teaching and Learning on the Verge demonstrates how educators in all disciplines can integrate civic engagement multicultural literacy and leadership into their classrooms and programs Featuring voices from literature and philosophy in dialogue with the living stage of classrooms streets and community spaces this book offers an imaginative and practical guide to democratic education
