Governments and Civil Society Advancing Climate Agendas Flavia Milano,2019-05-21 The approval of the Paris Agreement in December 2015 established a new global regimen in matters of climate change Similarly countries from Latin America and the Caribbean participate in and adhere to additional processes regarding environmental sustainability including the national development of the 2030 Agenda and the Principle 10 Escaz Agreement These 3 instruments among others recognize the importance of an effective engagement with Civil Society for the advancement and implementation of the environmental sustainability agreements and goals With this regional diagnostic study the IDB Group enhances its knowledge in the subject matter with the technical experience regarding citizen engagement It sheds light on the perspective of best practices employed by governments for the advancement of their environmental commitments with the contributions of Civil Society in Argentina Chile Colombia Costa Rica Jamaica Mexico and Peru The study had a methodological framework that identifies systematizes and analyzes best citizen engagement practices for the advancement of governments climate and sustainability agendas It is structured in 3 chapters i a conceptual framework which guides the reader about the methodology including relevant definitions for the analysis of best engagement practices ii a section containing best engagement practices in the climate and environmental sustainability agendas for each of the 7 countries of the study with potential of being replicated in other contexts iii a comparative analysis with recommendations and road maps based in the findings of the diagnostic section

The Regulation and Policy of Latin American Energy Transitions Lucas Noura Guimarães, 2020-02-19 The Regulation and Policy of Latin American Energy Transitions examines the ongoing revolution within the energy landscape of Latin America This book includes real world examples from across the continent to demonstrate the current landscape of energy policy in Latin America It focuses on distributed energy resources including distributed generation energy efficiency and microgrids but also addresses the role of less common energy sources such as geothermal and biogas as well as discusses the changing role of energy actors where consumers become prosumers or prosumagers and utilities become service providers The legal frameworks that are still hampering the transformation of the energy landscape are explored together with an analysis of the economic planning related and social aspects of energy transitions which can help address the issue of how inequalities are affecting and being affected by energy transitions The book is suitable for policy makers lawyers economists and social science professionals working with energy policy as well as researchers and industry professionals in the field It is an ideal source for anyone involved in energy policy and regulation across Latin America

Putting Water Security to Work Chad Staddon, Christopher A. Scott, 2021-09-09 Over the last decade water security has replaced sustainability as the key optic for thinking about how we manage water This reframing has offered benefits including clear recognition of the link between humans the environment and the right to water and also posed challenges the tendency in some quarters to interpret security solely in terms of geopolitical or economic securitisation In this collection the authors offer a radical repositioning of these debates updated to reflect the concerns of our post pandemic world The chapters in this volume examine several different themes including how water security articulates with locality and culture how it operates across spatial scales and its moral ethical resonances The chapters in this book were originally published in the journals Water International and International Journal of Water Resources provides the means for nongovernmental organizations community groups and individuals to bring environmental and public health problems to the attention of international courts tribunals and commissions or to their domestic counterparts It suggests specific strategies and provides detailed information for taking action This revised and updated edition also contains new case studies of the application of those strategies that has occurred in recent years Each chapter provides a description of the institutional mechanisms that can potentially receive review and remedy the alleged violation along with a set of guidelines that explain how the reader can employ a particular strategy and an example that indicates the effectiveness of a given strategy In addition the book offers an appendix that lists individuals and organizations who can assist with the various strategies described Defending the Environment represents the first concise comprehensive guide to international Institutions and Multinational Organizations G. Gregory Letterman,2002 Identifying the relevant multilateral institutions and multinational organizations involved in particular aspects of international finance and trade often proves to be difficult This book makes that process easy while providing valuable descriptions of and insights into those institutions and organizations

Chapter topics examine multilateral institutions and organizations generally and their major umbrella organization the United Nations concerned with national currencies national solvency financial institutions and securities exchange and international financial transactions and securities promoting economic development regulating international trade dealing with international product and performance standards standardized legal commercial rules and common usages and documents through international conventions and treaties the harmonization of national commercial laws and accepted sectoral practices protecting international intellectual property rights managing international environmental commodities and natural resources matters resolving international disputes and involved with other international finance and trade matters No other book now in print covers this topic None is likely to ever do so with such thoroughness and clarity Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint Foreign Investment in Latin America and the Caribbean

2006 United Nations. Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean, 2007 This is the latest in a series of annual reports on recent trends and developments in relation to foreign direct investment FDI and investment strategies in Latin America and the Caribbean region The main message of this year's report is that active and integrated FDI attraction policies linked to national development strategies are necessary to secure quality FDI These lessons are drawn from policy practices in the more successful European and Asian countries which contrast with the more passive and disconnected FDI attraction policies evident in Latin America and the Caribbean The 2006 report also contains chapters that analyse the experiences of two relatively small investor countries in Latin America and the Caribbean the Republic of Korea and Portugal Handbook of Sustainability Research Walter Leal Filho, 2005 This handbook introduces concepts ideas and methods of sustainability research based on real examples It is divided into four sections One part deals with theoretical aspects of sustainability and refers to theoretical approaches to sustainability research Another section elaborates on more practical approaches to sustainability research offering views and perspectives from various researchers illustrating how regulations laws and political frameworks influence sustainability A third part treats education for sustainability and presents research and practical projects showcasing how sustainability research may focus in formal and non formal education The final section draws some conclusions based on the body of experiences and knowledge gathered by the authors This handbook will be of great use to educators scientists researchers politicians environment activists teachers and others interested in sustainability and in the implementation of results of sustainability research Haematologica (Rome, Italy), 1999
