Using Test Data in Clinical Practice Kathryn C MacCluskie,Elizabeth Reynolds Welfel,Sarah M. Toman,2002 Material presented in many testing textbooks is appropriately broad and comprehensive but the effect for students new to testing is difficulty in then translating the extensive information into the practical skills of administering scoring and interpreting tests to help inform the treatment process Few resources exist to help students and mental health clinicians with the daunting task of learning how to synthesize test data from numerous instruments into a meaningful treatment plan and strategy for a client This book was written to address that need It provides readers with clear and detailed step by step procedures for using the WAIS III MMPI 2 MMPI A Kuder Occupational Interest Survey and the Strong Interest Inventory It features case examples and practice opportunities in test usage detailed discussion of approaches to client feedback and report writing and a review of ethical and legal considerations in using tests in clinical settings It takes readers through a systematic explanation of how to understand and integrate data from multiple sources to maximize the information gleaned from the tests It also emphasizes using test data to maximize helpfulness to the client and how to interpret test data to clients in language that is understandable
