Cjune 2013 International Paper:

The Changing Policy-Making Process in Greater China Bennis Wai Yip So, Yuang-kuang Kao, 2014-04-24 This book explores how the policy making process is changing in the very volatile conditions of present day mainland China Taiwan and Hong Kong It considers the overall background conditions the need to rebalance in mainland China after years of hectic economic growth governance transition and democratic consolidation in Taiwan and governance crisis in Hong Kong under a regime of uncertain legitimacy It examines the various actors in the policy making process the civic engagement of ordinary people and the roles of legislators mass media and bureaucracy and discusses how these actors interact in a range of different policy cases Throughout the book contrasts the different approaches in the three different jurisdictions and assesses how the policy making process is changing and how it is likely to change further Fiscal and Debt Policies for the Future P. Arestis, M. Sawyer, 2014-04-30 This book offers detailed analysis and informed comment on the future of emerging economic policies It is essential reading for all postgraduates and scholars looking for expert discussion and debate on the issues surrounding economic policy Concepts and Values in Biodiversity Dirk Lanzerath, Minou Friele, 2014-01-23 Biodiversity may refer to the diversity of genes species or ecosystems in general These varying concepts of biodiversity occasionally lead to conflicts among researchers and policy makers as each of them require a customized type of protection strategy This book addresses the questions surrounding the merits of conserving an existing situation evolutionary development or the intentional substitution of one genome species or ecosystem for another Any practical steps towards the protection of biodiversity demand a definition of that which is to be protected and in turn the motivations for protecting biodiversity Is biodiversity a necessary model which is also useful or does it carry intrinsic value Debates like this are particularly complex when interested parties address it from different conceptual and moral perspectives Comprised of three parts each complemented by a short introductory paragraph this collection presents a variety of approaches to this challenge The chapters cover the perspectives of environmental scientists with expertise in evolutionary environmental biology systematic zoology and botany as well as those of researchers with expertise in philosophy ethics politics law and economics This combination facilitates a truly interdisciplinary debate by highlighting hitherto unacknowledged implications that inform current academic and political debates on biodiversity and its protection The book should be of interest to students and researchers of environment studies biodiversity environmental philosophy ethics and management For Hydropower Licenses, Upper Hudson River Projects, 2001 Conflict & Prosperity Menachem Blondheim, Andreas Stergio, Kivanç Ulusoy, 2017-08-07 The eastern part of the Mediterranean is witnessing some of the most intriguing and dangerous events in today's world It features weak or collapsed states direct and proxy wars and a confluence of great power stakes In recent years a new and significant element has been added to the region's troubled search for equilibrium the discovery of substantial treasures of offshore energy These energy discoveries are widely recognized as a game changer This volume investigates the extent of this change and the range of its implications The Eastern Mediterranean has historically been a meeting point of east and west of the economic north and south and of three major world religions Christianity Islam and Judaism However this volume proposes to view the Eastern Mediterranean as a separate new region and not as a mere extension of neighboring continents or even of the Middle East This analytical frame stands at the center of the book
