Reading the World's Stories Annette Y. Goldsmith, Theo Heras, Susan Corapi, 2016-08-11 Reading the World's Stories is volume 5 in the Bridges to Understanding series of annotated international youth literature bibliographies sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People USBBY is the United States chapter of the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY a Switzerland based nonprofit whose mission is bring books and children together The series promotes sharing international children's books as a way to facilitate intercultural understanding and meet new literary voices This volume follows Children's Books from Other Countries 1998 The World through Children's Books 2002 Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books 2006 and Bridges to Understanding Envisioning the World through Children's Books 2011 and acts as a companion book to the earlier titles Centered around the theme of the importance of stories the guide is a resource for discovering more recent global books that fit many reading tastes and educational needs for readers aged 0-18 years Essays by storyteller Anne Pellowski author Beverley Naidoo and academic Marianne Martens offer a variety of perspectives on international youth literature This latest installment in the series covers books published from 2010-2014 and includes

English language imports as well as translations of children's and young adult literature first published outside of the United States. These books are supplemented by a smaller number of culturally appropriate books from the US to help fill in gaps from underrepresented countries. The organization of the guide is geographic by region and country. All of the more than 800 entries are recommended and many of the books have won awards or achieved other recognition in their home countries. Forty children's book experts wrote the annotations. The entries are indexed by author, translator, illustrator, title, and subject. Back matter also includes international book awards, important organizations and research collections, and a selected directory of publishers known for publishing books from other countries.

Encountering Enchantment Susan Fichtelberg, 2015-09-29. The most current and complete guide to a favorite teen genre, this book maps current releases along with perennial favorites, describing and categorizing fantasy, paranormal, and science fiction titles published since 2006. Speculative fiction continues to be of consuming interest to teens, so if you work with that age group, keeping up with the explosion of new titles in this category is critical. Likewise, understanding the many genres and subgenres into which these titles fall—wizard fantasy, alternate worlds, fantasy mystery, dystopian fiction, science fantasy, and more—is also key if you want to motivate young readers and direct them to books they'll enjoy. Written to help you master a complex array of genres and titles, this guide includes more than 1,500 books, most published since 2006, organizing them by genre, subgenre, and theme. Subgenres growing in popularity, such as steampunk, are highlighted to keep you current with the latest trends. The guide will serve three audiences. Of course, you can turn to it as you help your teenage patrons select the books and genres that will interest them most. Teen readers, whether devoted fans or newcomers, can use it themselves to find titles and subgenres they might like. In addition, the guide will help teachers and parents match students with the right books.

Sold by the Millions Louise Lightfoot, Amit Sarwal, 2011-12-08. Australian genre fiction writers have successfully exploited the Australian landscape and peoples, and as a result, their books are today sold by the millions across boundaries. They have created stories that are imaginative, visionary, and diverse. They appeal to local and international readerships and most importantly are thoroughly entertaining, thus making them a strong presence in the popular fiction bazaar. Sold by the Millions: Australia's Bestsellers is the first collection to concentrate on Australia's best-selling material that forms the armchair reading of many Australians. Leading experts of popular fiction provide introspective pieces on Romance, Horror, Crime, Science Fiction, Western, Comics, Travel, Sports, and Children's writing, so that a wholesome picture emerges of the wide range of reading and research options available for scholars.

For Younger Readers, 2014 Talking Book Topics, 2015 Connecting Children with Classics Meagan Lacy, Pauline Dewan, Shady Radical, 2018-03-14. This guide identifies hundreds of books that can help children develop into engaged readers. Children's librarians, collection development specialists in public libraries, as well as K-8 school librarians and teachers will choose from the best in children's titles. This unique readers' advisory and collection development guide for librarians and others who work with children focuses on readers and their needs rather than simply categorizing books by their characteristics and features as traditional literature guides do Taking this unusual perspective brings forth powerful new tools and curricular ideas on how to promote the classics and how to best engage with young readers and meet their personal and emotional needs to boost interest and engagement The guide identifies seven reader driven appeals or themes that are essential to successful readers advisory awakening new perspectives providing models for identity offering reassurance comfort strength and confirmation of self worth connecting with others giving courage to make a change facilitating acceptance and building a disinterested understanding of the world By becoming aware of and tapping into these seven themes librarians and other educators can help children more deeply connect with books thereby increasing the odds of becoming lifelong readers The detailed descriptions of each book provide plot summaries as well as notes on themes subjects reading interest levels adaptations and alternative formats translations and read alike This informative guide will also aid librarians in collection development and bibliotherapy services

Abhorsen Garth Nix, 2009-10-06 In the final book in the Old Kingdom trilogy master of fantasy and globally bestselling author Garth Nix returns to the fantastic world of Sabriel for an unforgettable conclusion Breathtaking bittersweet and utterly unforgettable After centuries in captivity the Destroyer is nearly free Beneath the earth a malignant force lies waiting greedy for freedom from its ancient prison As the Old Kingdom falls once more into a realm of darkness and terror the people look desperately to the Abhorsen the scourge of the Dead to save them Yet Abhorsen Sabriel is lost missing in Ancelstierre Only Lirael has any chance of stopping the Destroyer With her companions Sameth Mogget and the Disreputable Dog she travels across the Old Kingdom in a race against time battling Shadow Hands and dark necromancers to reach Ancelstierre before it is too late But what hope can one young woman have against a terrible evil with the power to destroy life itself This eagerly awaited conclusion to Garth Nix's extraordinary trilogy of Old Kingdom books is a complex and vividly imagined story powerful terrifying and compelling Terror courage bitterness love desperation and sacrifice all swirl together in an apocalyptic climax that pits both Life and Death together against the destruction of everything Kirkus
