Becoming a Teacher of Writing in Elementary Classrooms Donna Kalmbach Phillips, Mindy Legard

Larson, 2015-12-22 Becoming a Teacher of Writing in Elementary Classrooms nurtures teachers' identities as writers, connects to the realities of writing instruction in real and diverse classrooms, and encourages critical and creative thinking. This text is about writing instruction as a journey teachers and students embark on together. The focus is on learning how to teach writing through specific teaching and learning structures found in the Writing Studio: mini lessons, teacher and peer conferencing, guided writing, and sharing, celebrating, and broadcasting writing. Pedagogical features include teaching structures and strategies, Problematising Practice, classroom scenarios, assessment resources, and a Companion Website. Because a teacher who views him or herself as a writer is best positioned to implement the Writing Studio, a parallel text, Becoming a Writer, gives readers space to consider who they are as a writer, their personal process as a writer, and who they might become as a writer. Assessment-Powered Teaching Nancy W. Sindelar, 2010-11-19 The purpose of Power Teaching is to change teachers' attitudes toward testing by illustrating the power that meaningful assessment brings to the art and science of teaching. The book also shares efficient and practical tools and strategies for using formative and summative assessment results to actually enhance teaching effectiveness and students' learning. Using testimonials from power teachers, the text shows classroom teachers how they too can use assessment analyses to inform their teaching, provide motivational feedback to their students, and monitor their students' progress toward learning targets and standards. This handy reference argues that testing can be a power tool for helping teachers rather than an intrusion on academic freedom and valuable instructional time. A key distinction of the book is its coverage of using technology to collect and analyze assessment data.
