Central African Republic International Monetary Fund. African Dept., 2023-11-06. Board approval of the new ECF supported program helped avert a crisis in CAR. The new program immediately boosted investor confidence and markedly improved the government's access to domestic financing. The program has also established a framework to implement much-needed fiscal and governance reforms, unlock IFI financing, safeguard public service delivery in social sectors. Yet the overall environment has stayed fragile due to protracted security risks and a volatile political situation, which was recently heightened by a constitutional reform that removed presidential term limits. Tonga International Monetary Fund. Asia and Pacific Dept., 2025-11-10. Tonga's economy is expanding steadily, driven by stronger than expected grant inflows, elevated remittances, a rebound in tourism, and fiscal support for the reconstruction. Headline inflation has declined below the reference rate, driven by lower food and energy prices, but core inflation has picked up, reflecting stronger domestic demand. Risks in the banking sector remain contained but have increased and require continued vigilance. Meanwhile, Tonga continues to face significant structural challenges, including geographic remoteness, a small and dispersed population, and high vulnerability to natural disasters. This persistent vulnerability discourages investment and incentivizes emigration, weighing on long-term growth prospects and requiring policies and reforms to enhance resilience and growth.
