Source Material (Provide a direct quotation or paraphrase and a parenthetical citation)	Page #	Respond, Analyze, and Evaluate (Why do you find this passage interesting or important?)
(What are you analyzing?) Simile “The snow was like a carpet, very gentle, very warm” (83).	83	I can picture the men standing in the concentration camp, watching the snow blanket the ground. It is silent there. The snow-covered ground is smooth and soft. Wiesel describes the snow as being “gentle” and “warm.” This comparison is not what one would expect. Standing barefoot in the snow would be very painful. The cold would cut deep into one’s feet. So why does he say it is warm? Maybe his feet are frozen, numb to the pain. Perhaps the snow provides insulation from night’s bitter cold. This comparison creates a sense of peace, a moment without terror and fear. It is as if he is home again, safe and warm. 111 words
(What are you analyzing?) Personification/ Internal Conflict “Death wrapped itself around me till I was stifled. It stuck to me. I felt that I could touch it. The idea of dying, of no longer being, began to fascinate me. Not to exist any longer” (82).	82	This is a sad moment for Elie. He has fought to survive, but cannot fight any longer. I can’t imagine being fourteen and wanting to die. I can’t imagine being fourteen and losing my family, my dignity, my soul. What a tragedy. In this passage, Wiesel personifies death to show the control it has over those who are suffering in the camps. In this case, Death silences Elie, overpowering his will and subduing his hope of survival. Elie is conflicted. He wants to survive. He wants to take care of his father. But he doesn’t know how much more he can take. This is important because we see that Elie has reached a breaking point. Death has come for him so many times but has failed. This time, however, Elie is too tired to run, too tired to fight. He has had enough. Death is offering a gift—an escape from this hellish existence. 153 words

Combining practical advice with humorous anecdotes from the author's own experience this book aims to show how to be an effective educator and maintain a positive outlook. It offers solutions to a range of classroom problems with emphasis on crisis prevention and interpersonal communication. A Student's Guide to First-year Composition Meg Smith, 2005 The Journal Book for Teachers of At-risk College Writers Susan Gardner, Toby Fulwiler, 1999 Educators across the grades and across the curriculum have long recognized the usefulness of journals to help student writers. But what about basic writers, learning disabled students and nontraditional and returning students? One of the values of journal writing is its accessibility yet no one has seemed to consider how at risk students might benefit. With this new collection the first of its kind Susan Gardner and Toby Fulwiler provide much needed advice. The authors of these essays are all experienced teachers of at risk writers both at two and four year colleges. They know the at risk students they are describing. Some readers will recognize the students as basic writers in basic writing courses. Others will find chapters written by writing center directors who serve a variety of students we might term as at risk. There are also chapters from educators who work specifically with Deaf students, ADHD students and learning disabled students. Each one describes uses of the journal and the adjustments to the assignment that make the journal such an accessible and instructive writing genre. The Journal Book Susan Gardner, Toby Fulwiler, 1999 Susan Gardner and Toby Fulwiler extend high quality guidance in journal writing to teachers in technical and professional programs.
