Dos Mundos Terrell,1997-11 Space-Time Perspectives on Early Colonial Moquegua Prudence M.

Rice,2013-11-02 In this rich study of the construction and reconstruction of a colonized landscape Prudence M Rice takes an implicit political ecology approach in exploring encounters of colonization in Moquegua a small valley of southern Peru Building on theories of spatiality spatialization and place she examines how politically mediated human interaction transformed the physical landscape the people who inhabited it and the resources and goods produced in this poorly known area Space Time Perspectives on Early Colonial Moquegua looks at the encounters between existing populations and newcomers from successive waves of colonization from indigenous expansion states Wari Tiwanaku and Inka to the foreign Spaniards and the way each group re spatialized the landscape according to its own political and economic ends Viewing these spatializations from political economic and religious perspectives Rice considers both the ideological and material occurrences Concluding with a special focus on the multiple space time considerations involved in Spanish inspired ceramics from the region Space Time Perspectives on Early Colonial Moquegua integrates the local and rural with the global and urban in analyzing the events and processes of colonialism It is a vital contribution to the literature of Andean studies and will appeal to students and scholars of archaeology historical archaeology history ethnohistory and globalization The

Cumulative Book Index ,1995 A world list of books in the English language Visions of Deliverance Mayte

Green-Mercado,2020-01-15 In Visions of Deliverance Mayte Green Mercado traces the circulation of Muslim and crypto Muslim apocalyptic texts known as joferes through formal and informal networks of merchants Sufis and other channels of diffusion among Muslims and Christians across the Mediterranean from Constantinople and Venice to Morisco towns in eastern Spain The movement of these prophecies from the eastern to the western edges of the Mediterranean illuminates strategies of Morisco cultural and political resistance reconstructing both productive and oppositional interactions and exchanges between Muslims and Christians in the early modern Mediterranean Challenging a historiography that has primarily understood Morisco apocalyptic thought as the expression of a defeated group that was conscious of the loss of their culture and identity Green Mercado depicts Moriscos not simply as helpless victims of Christian oppression but as political actors whose use of end times discourse helped define and construct their society anew Visions of Deliverance helps us understand the implications of confessionalization forced conversion and assimilation in the early modern period and the intellectual and theological networks that shaped politics and identity across the Mediterranean in this era Mario Bunge:

A Centenary Festschrift Michael R. Matthews,2019-07-17 This volume has 41 chapters written to honor the 100th birthday of Mario Bunge It celebrates the work of this influential Argentine Canadian physicist and philosopher Contributions show the value of Bunge s science informed philosophy and his systematic approach to philosophical problems The chapters explore the exceptionally wide spectrum of Bunge s contributions to metaphysics methodology and philosophy of science philosophy of mathematics philosophy of physics philosophy of psychology philosophy of social science philosophy of biology philosophy of technology moral philosophy social and political philosophy medical philosophy and education The contributors include scholars from 16 countries Bunge combines ontological realism with epistemological fallibilism He believes that science provides the best and most warranted knowledge of the natural and social world and that such knowledge is the only sound basis for moral decision making and social and political reform Bunge argues for the unity of knowledge In his eyes science and philosophy constitute a fruitful and necessary partnership Readers will discover the wisdom of this approach and will gain insight into the utility of cross disciplinary scholarship This anthology will appeal to researchers students and teachers in philosophy of science social science and liberal education programmes 1 Introduction Section I An Academic Vocation 3 chapters Section II Philosophy 12 chapters Section III Physics and Philosophy of Physics 4 chapters Section IV Cognitive Science and Philosophy of Mind 2 chapters Section V Sociology and Social Theory 4 chapters Section VI Ethics and Political Philosophy 3 chapters Section VII Biology and Philosophy of Biology 3 chapters Section VIII Mathematics 3 chapters Section IX Education 2 chapters Section X Varia 3 chapters Section XI Bibliography Fodor's Belize and Guatemala, 4th Edition Fodor's, 2002-10 The exotic lands of Belize and Guatemala come alive with great descriptions of all the sights plus shopping nightlife outdoor fun and side trips Historical background walking tours and unique itineraries plus dozens of maps

Handbook of Vanilla Science and Technology Daphna Havkin-Frenkel, Faith C. Belanger, 2010-11-18 Vanilla is the world's most commonly used flavour and fragrance used in foods cosmetics pharmaceuticals and other products and is therefore of considerable economic importance This book provides a comprehensive overview of the science and technology used in the production and supply chain of vanilla products A wide range of international authors cover topics which include agricultural production global markets analytical methods sensory analysis food and fragrance applications organic and fair trade vanilla diseases that affect vanilla and novel uses It is of interest to academic researchers in this field and is also an important resource for the vanilla industry and those companies that use vanilla and vanillin as flavours and fragrances worldwide Key Features The only book to cover such a wide range of topics on this most commercially valuable of flavour ingredients Includes an analysis of the current vanilla markets in the US and Europe Edited by experts who hold roles in the flavour industry and academic research Books in Print, 1994 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2002 Afrodescendant Resistance to Deracination in Colombia Aurora Vergara-Figueroa, 2017-10-26 This book provides a socio historical analysis of the 2002 massacre at Bellavista Bojay Choc Colombia The author examines how the concepts of forced displacement and migration could be formulas for historical erasure These concepts are used to name populations such as the survivors of this massacre and are limited in their ability to contribute to the demands for reparation of the affected populations Instead based on an ethnographic study of the pain and suffering generated in the survivors the book proposes the concept of deracination as a tool to study land dispossession It captures both the complex local specificities the global linkages of this
